HOROSCOPES

By Soup Can Sam, Staff Astrologist

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)

Having picked up this copy of Street Roots, you're feeling out-of-this-world great about supporting your local vendor and picking up on important issues in the community. Soup Can is fairly certain this feeling will continue for a few weeks, and then gradually fade around the 14th. Soon after, elation will strike again on the 16th, which just so happens to be when the new edition of Street Roots will be ready for sale. Lucky number: 16.

Aries (March 21-April 19) Rythym has not been in your stars lately, which is odd because you usually can slap a pretty good seat beat at the stop light. Keep tapping and snapping, drumming and humming, and it should return. Refrain from open air scatting.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Try some new music this week. Something you can dance to, fastlike, and with an unbridled passion thing hitting the groove. This can be accomplished alone in your bedroom, sure, but why not take it out on the road? Not the side of the road, but a club or something. That's what this is about. Move!

Gemini (May 21-June 20) You don't know how many friends you have. Think quality, not quantity, this month.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) Too much of a good thing is not so good! What? You've heard this before? Worth repeating if you remember St. Paddy's day 2011, but Soup expects you don't. Moderation – and water – are the rules. Even nutmeg is poisonous if you shoot it intravenously.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) While you're considering donating one or more of your bodily fluids to a good cause, don't forget the more serious wetware you're holding. Organ donors live life to the fullest – more than once.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Anxiety keeping you awake at night? Taking the fun out of that sunny patch between the rain? You're not getting perspective from social media, or media at all, for that matter. Of course not. Perspective will never be one-dimensional. Read more history.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) With your boundless imagination and unconventional approach to happiness, you're destined to improve the lives of people around you this month. There is a solution around every corner. Of course, as often happens, a trade-off will present itself sometime next week. Don't settle. Keep walking, then you bettah make a left.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Pushing the envelope this month should be standard operating procedure. This is a pleasure-seeking directive from the outer galaxies that want to see their homey bust it up, yo – before they're too far away to see the action. And keep the curtains open.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 23) There is a lot of "us vs. them" talkers out there these days. Don't be one of them.

Capricorn (Dec. 24-Jan. 19) Veritably, the world is a vicious place filled with people clawing to get ahead on the broken backs of the voiceless. Do not let your own inner-tranquility be tainted by the egos of others. We live in a world broken by greed, corruption and neglect. But when you accept that brokenness and vow to continue unphased by its monstrous complexity, you will grow, and from that growth you can create change.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Stop throwing yourself a pity party over your past and be perfectly present. The future is now. Perhaps the last few months have been rough but it's only from these rough and tumble places that we can dust off, pull up and start the day with a renewed curiosity. Start looking under bigger rocks.
