

NO ON 79

Measure 79 would amend Oregon's constitution, banning local jurisdictions from being able to create a real estate transfer tax. We shouldn't amend the constitution for one industry. Measure 79 would close the door on local governments' future options to take care of vulnerable citizens. The choice should be made by Oregonians, not private industry.

HOROSCOPES

By Soup Can Sam, Staff Astrologist

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

This week, be on the lookout for stray cats. The first two that you'll encounter will try your patience, but wait and follow the third to a secret garden where you'll encounter a diamond in the rough.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) The recent display of meteors will have you reaching for the stars but don't forget to appreciate the beauty of the cracks in the sidewalk. While you're looking down, you may just bump into the best friend you will ever have.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 23) The stars are aligning in your favor, your favorite meal will soon be provided for you.

Capricorn (Dec. 24-Jan. 19) Go on an adventure. Bring a map, but have no plan and go where your heart leads you. The road is sometimes bumpy, but you'll find your way home.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Immerse yourself in a cup of coffee. Find yourself swimming among the deep-fuzzy-new-puppy feeling of taking a break and enjoying each taste of it.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) Change is good. Remember that the next time you don those threadbare briefs with the overstretched waistband. Throw them away and buy yourself a new pair of underwear. And don't cheap out this time: You deserve all the support $12 can offer.

Aries (March 21-April 19) Not getting good reception? Stick your antenna out the window and take what you can get.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) A Nutella-covered life is never a bad idea. Try exploring new surfaces on which to spread your Nutella. Don't forget to taste before moving on.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Listen, Gemini, we get it. You like mice and the Eternal City. That's fine.

But stop asking everyone to join your "All Rodents Lead to Rome" Facebook group. It's a bad pun, and it will never catch on. On the other hand, you might have something going with your "Barack Obama was born in al-Qaeda and I have the documents to prove it!!!" group. Pursue that angle for a while.

Cancer (June 21-July. 22) Be wary of marmalade this fortnight, Cancer, as Venus will be sneaking into a very inappropriate position with respect to Jupiter. Some real low-down business going on. This alignment foretells unfortunate spillage and the possibility of rodent infiltration. Strawberry jam is OK, though.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) The birds migrate and roost in a chimney. The falcons may come out and put on a show for you; the birds may not be as happy about it.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This week you will be challenged by someone you don't know. Take the challenge, this person will be a part of your life forever.
