

Bridge of Sorrows

by Ron Sanford

Bridges everywhere
Bridges seen, bridges burned
Bridges we can't see

Under the bridge my sorrows have flowed
Where I traveled to and fro

Bridges out of time
The thought is most sublime

Where do we go from here now?
Ahead is the open road

Bridges in my head
Synapses coalesce
Still can't find a home

Under the bridge my sorrows have flowed
Where I traveled to and fro

Why am I here?
Where can I go?
Under the bridge of sorrows

Leaves tumble and fall where they may,
Regarding life, who is man to say?
Is man just a part of life, or is he its master?
The word master can mean surreal things.
But is it a word created by human beings?
The people who know the answers surely will never tell.
And too, is there a heaven, or a hell?
