

NO ON 79

Measure 79 would amend Oregon's constitution, banning local jurisdictions from being able to create a real estate transfer tax. We shouldn't amend the constitution for one industry. Measure 79 would close the door on local governments' future options to take care of vulnerable citizens. The choice should be made by Oregonians, not private industry.

HOROSCOPES

By Soup Can Sam, Staff Astrologist

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 22)

The many moons of Saturn (yup, even the illustrious Rhea) are showing that you should open that Twitter account. If you don't like what's being said, change the conversation.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 23) It's times like these when you might want to think about rearranging things in your life. Seriously.

Capricorn (Dec. 24-Jan. 19) Can you for once forget about impressing others, and do whatever the hell you want. Yes, wear the sweat pants. Screw-em. All. It's your world, do what you want with it.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Whatever you do this month Aquarius, don't let your binder full of women be discovered. Especially not in public.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) It's raining, it's raining. Embrace the weird. Take risks. Go for the unconventional all winter long.

Aries (March 21-April 19) If you don't start doing something nice for others Karma is going to kick you in the butt. That simple.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Got Scrabble on your mind? Careful friend, the triple word score could lead you on an endless chase for the win. Pay attention to how many letters you have-- and how many hours you're playing.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Playoff races make October an interesting month. I think we can all appreciate the lack of pinstripes.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) Collect your joys in a jar this week. Speak your honest words into the jar space and seal them tight until you're ready to spread your joy over that new garden you've been thinking of starting.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) Don't let the cheese slip off your cracker. It could be Monterey Jack, brie, gouda, mozzarella, or even goat, but the two work much better when kept together.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your political buttons scream for attention this time of year. Make sure the postal boxes are filled before November 6th.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Those wet jeans may be the 10-pound feather that break the camel's back. You will understand why rain pants are an oft-touted item.
