

Street Roots Rose City Resource

The Street Roots Rose City Resource is the most comprehensive, updated list of services for people experiencing homelessness and poverty in Multnomah and Washington counties. Street Roots produced 105,000 guides last year – 40,000 in the summer and 65,000 in the winter. The guide is distributed to more than 300 organizations and institutions throughout the Portland region. The guide is used by social services, local businesses, law-enforcement, health care organizations and hospitals, among other agencies and organizations. For more information on the guide, go to www.streetroots.org.

We are proud to partner with the following organizations and institutions that support the guide and Street Roots. If your business or organization is interested in becoming a sponsor of this great resource contact us at israel@streetroots.org.

People can't believe that, to look at me, that I was homeless, but my motto is just because I don't have a home doesn't mean I have to look like I don't have a home. I'm getting my pride back and my self-esteem. I'm learning to like myself again and like what I see in the mirror."
