

Series on East Portland brings out mix of semi-thoughts

Quasi readers (trolls) sound off after The Who Ogorian unveiled a 7,000 word in-depth, breaking news report (rant) about East Portland's plan to integrate (yeah, right) into the rest of society.

It's time for East Portland to share the wealth.

East Portlanders have historically gotten everything they've wanted, while Portland's inner core continues to suffer from extreme blight. Downtown residents deserve more.

We commend the Portland Redeveloped Commission's strategy for the past 40-years to target the blight in downtown. By offering tax incentives and hundreds of millions of dollars to kick-start development downtown – residents in Portland's inner core are finally being offered the same benefits East Portland has enjoyed for decades.

East Portland residents complain – a lot!

We get it. You don't have sidewalks, parks, bike lanes, adequate lighting in public spaces, good roads or grocery stores. You basically live in a desert. Boohoo, East Portland. Get over yourselves.

East Portland is the new black

That is all.

I hate the homeless people, slugs

I just want to say that I blame the dirty, rotten, disgusting, horrible, ant eating homeless people. I also think that East Portland should clean up its slug problem. Slimy bastards.

Blowhard pissy Portland liberals suck ass!

I frankly blame Charlie "Choo-Choo" Hales, and Sam "Wanky Spanky" Adams and all of the other communist on city council. I wouldn't live in Portland is you paid me a million bucks.

Great story on East Berlin

I really enjoyed the story about East Berlin, but I was under the impression that it was just one city now. Still, great reporting. I feel like I learned a lot.

Who Ogorian right-wing piece of shits!

I just want you to know that I canceled your stupid four-day-a-week subscription and that I Hate Your Paper. I still read online, but that's it. Corporate whores! Right wing, tea party having, editorial leeching, sucking board. Never again! East Portland forever!

Try defending new sidewalks without guns

Frankly, I don't care what happens to East Portland as long as I don't have to pay one more cent in taxes for the stupid arts or trains or any other pet project dreamed up by Randy Leonard and the rest of the socialists on Portland City Council. I'm tired of Portlanders complaining about not having sidewalks when the government is trying to take our guns away. Try defending a sidewalk from the Russians without any guns. We'll see who's crying when the Chinese and Russians invade our pretty little parks. Not me. I'll be ready.

Racial profiling in East Portland

The Portland Police Bureau wanted to write and correct The Who Ogorian on its coverage of racial profiling this week. It was reported that 7 out of 10 African-American males are targeted east of 82nd Avenue. The actual number is 9 out of 10.
