

street roots

only $1

WEEKLY MARCH 20-26, 2015 STREETROOTS.ORG

A Frank discussion

The lifelong public servant tells Street Roots that after more than 50 years in politics, he still has work to do

Page 8

PHOTOGRAPHER: ADAM HUNGER

"I chose a political career – even when I assumed it meant forgoing a satisfactory personal life – because nothing was more important to me than doing all I could to reduce the suffering inflicted on vulnerable people by unfair societal arrangements."

— BARNEY FRANK

FORMER CONGRESSMAN, D-MASS.
EXCERPT FROM "FRANK: A LIFE IN POLITICS FROM THE GREAT SOCIETY TO SAME-SEX MARRIAGE"

SR WHAT'S INSIDE

Human investment

County programs to keep people out of prison face severe cuts in state funding

Page 4

Colorful language

The Curious Comedy Theater's Minority Retort prompts laughter and learning

Page 7

Vendor profile

Kimberly Etherton's new focus

Page 6

NEWS

CULTURE

COMMUNITY