

Roads to Despair

by Wayne Murray, combat veteran

The Roads to Despair are many Seek knowing first
 Then comes the freedom from the rain
 From knowing comes wealth
 Billions of brain cells bring the certainty of accomplishment.

The Grand Order of It All

by Daniel Cox

Things ebb and flow in season or out, is it not for a reason.
 Some things are not good, and others elite, glory be, glory does as glory be...
 However some things are just below the limelight most delight beneath the light lies darkness most foul lurking forever in the shadow Plotting and scheming its own lies and limits
 Here there is no justice only despair and plight for hope lost.
 Our hope dwells in the soul of humanity we endure so much
 And yet strive with every heart beat we conquest for the best.
