

Storm Dancing

by j.mccurdy

don't be the match
 that strikes my skin....
 her breathes
 matched the ragged assed beat of the heart who had suddenly forgotten its own rhythms....
 he watched
 her eyes set fire
 to lightening....
 watched
 terror and adrenaline
 surrender and all out war
 break out along nerve endings that couldn't
 wait to begin.....
 and to be honest...
 for a minute
 he wasn't sure
 if Kevlar...
 or
 a parachute
 would save the day....
 but for sure
 and for certain
 it
 was a cliff diving
 kinda day

Being inside for the first night in 12 years was great. "I was able to sleep right away, my bed is nice and comfortable." We're so glad that our friend and vendor Arnold Casey is in his own apartment again after so many years on the streets. Safety, security and a place to call home all basic human needs. Arnold wants to thank Quinn at JOIN for helping him secure the lease and Street Roots for helping him pay his rent.
