Awaken

by Ashly Garner

God's acts stir in us
a sense of self Remember who you are

We begin to hear
to see
to feel
until we know
unending love

Learn The Way
and choose your thoughts
lest they choose you
and your spirit drops

God's words
as if a lamp, light your way
be stirred for it is your very salvation at stake

We begin to hear
to see
to feel
until we know
unending love

Awake;
sin no more
allow love –
Remember who you are.

Fall

by Eileen V.

Brings color into our lives.
Also, bees still out of their hives.
Into the lakes birds take dives.

Red, yellow, orange and brown.
Color of leaves hitting the ground.
Squirrels gathering nuts are around.
While Bald Eagles above do sound.

I enjoy a cooler day.
Keeps my hot flashes at bay.
Molly blends with the leaves to play.
"Life is good," I must say!
