

"My mom taught me to be a good man, a family man, I guess. I raised my three boys and three girls. Now I've got 28 grandkids and 8 great! But I like getting used to living on my own, it's like being a bachelor again. I like my little spot here, in Portland."

—Frank, a senior tenant of affordable housing in Northeast Portland

The Portland metro region lacks 40,000 affordable homes for families and individuals with very low incomes. It's time we value and invest in affordable housing across the region, just like we do our parks, schools and bike lanes...for everyone.

Join the Welcome Home Coalition. We're working to make housing work for everyone.
