

Broken

by Wyman

Hurt many times
That is a festering sore in a heart
A strong weakness that swallows the inner being of our souls

Dreams of past staring thru a window of the people once known trying to relieve the life that was shown

Is it true that you cannot buy love?

Sure, it is a denial of the mind that keeps you there unsure . . .

There seems to be always something missing Will there be a time that this life makes sense?
Maybe . . .

That what makes it fun.

To see thru all matters in the mind, and maybe faith in the parallels of life that there's a new heart and love that we find

The Wanderer

by Daniel Cox

I wander the hills, lost and alone
I stumble thru endless fields of dreams.
I trek through a fantasy realm.
I imagine a troop of soldiers marching to their doom.
In the hot sand of the desert they march at double time in their endless quest of desire they drink and eat of the land without want... but the land can only give up so much before it takes back.
