

“Where does Portland’s rapid development leave those of us on a fixed incomes? When you’re struggling to find a place you can afford on Social Security, you realize that your choices have been taken away from you. Since moving into affordable housing, I’ve gone from survival mode to building for my future. Now I have a roof over my head that I can feel good about.”

— Pat, tenant of Affordable Housing at the Alder House

The Portland metro region lacks 40,000 affordable homes for families and individuals with very low incomes. It’s time we value and invest in affordable housing across the region, just like we do our parks, schools and bike lanes...for everyone.

Join the Welcome Home Coalition. We’re working to make home a place everyone can afford.
