

Train Wreck

By M. Roman

Nestled between love and hate
 Is where you will find my soul.
 Love
 A four letter word used to sell flowers
 And a fake sense of worth.
 Hate the overwhelming rage
 That occupies my mind.
 Teetering between the 2,
 Will the hate consume me
 like a shopper's greed on Black Friday...
 Or does love conquer all
 Like the fairy tales lead us to believe.
 I've stared into the abyss so long
 It started staring back.
 "Do you see that" I exclaim.
 "You are always in my heart ...
 I just can't let you in my soul."
 My heart belongs to the darkness
 But my soul belongs to someone else.

 Vendors Aaron Chandler, Kenneth Snider, Amy Garrigus and Eli Paulson grab a moment July 29, before heading out with last week's Street Roots. Every Friday morning, when the new paper arrives, vendors fill the house to talk about the news in the paper and on the streets.
