

Street Roots paired up with the Portland Fruit Tree Project for an apple-picking excursion on Sept. 15. The vendors picked apples for both casual munching and to donate to multiple food banks. Portland Fruit Tree Project is a grassroots nonprofit organization that harvests the fruit from residential trees and provides people with access to fresh, healthy produce.

Change the World

by Aileen McPherson

Knock, knock.
Who's there?
Change.
Change who?
Change you.
Me? Why?
Why, change is inevitable we change daily.
Change creates strength, shows courage,
imparts knowledge, makes you resilient,
without change we would not exist.

From the moment we are born we begin changing, we begin adapting to our environments and we will do this to our dying day.

Knock, knock.
Who's there?
I am.
I am who?
I am the change I want to see in the world.
Are you?
