

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 10

Street Roots

Starting Black Friday, Street Roots vendors have the opportunity to sell a limited-edition zine (small-circulation magazine), along with weekly issues of the Street Roots newspaper. The zine is sold to vendors for $1 to cover printing costs, and they will sell it for $4, keeping the profit as a means of earning income.

streetroots.org

Holiday zine

"The Gift of Giving" contains original works by Street Roots vendors. Through poetry, art and short stories, they take you on a journey through joy, pain, love and struggle, using their own personal experiences to put the holiday season in a different context from the one represented by the commercial forces in our society. Vendors will be selling at their usual turfs throughout Portland.

COURTESY PHOTO

SCRAP PDX

This nonprofit, donation-based, creative reuse store provides a range of educational opportunities and affordable art materials for the community.

1736 SW Alder St. scrapdx.orgKits for artists

SCRAP's To Go Kits are perfect for both artists and kids. A hodge-podge mix of bits of ribbon, small toys, designer paper and other random materials, they can provide hours of entertainment for kids or complement any mixed-media artist's tool box. SCRAP also offers Collage & Vintage Packs for all your paper craft needs.

Guilt-free gift wrap

Wrap your holiday gifts with reused materials! SCRAP PDX's wrapping station will be open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. every Tuesday in December. Donations are suggested for use of the wrapping station.

COURTESY PHOTO

Central City Coffee

Central City Coffee is a social enterprise where trainees learn sales and office skills they can use in future permanent employment. All profits go to Central City Concern programs to end homelessness in Portland.

centralcitycoffee.org

For the coffee connoisseur

Central City Coffee's Holiday Roast is a lively, medium-roast blend with a festive combination of honey, stone fruit and spice flavors. Central City Coffee's Holiday Roast, French Roast, Velocity and decaf are available in 12-ounce packages at New Seasons Markets, Whole Foods, Food Front, Green Zebra and other select stores.

PHOTO BY JOSEPH GLODE

NoPo Paws

Through December, NoPo Paws will donate 10 percent of profits to The Pixie Project, a shelter serving cats and dogs in inner Northeast Portland. Starting in January, NoPo Paws will split its donation, with 5 percent continuing to support animal rescue and welfare organizations and the other 5 percent donated to organizations that support social justice.

2148 N Killingsworth St.
nopopaws.comFor our furry friends

NoPo Paws has storewide holiday specials on everything except pet food on Nov. 25 and 26. The shop carries toys, treats and other necessities for dogs and cats, including locally made products from Cycle Dog, Gold Paw, Snooks, and The Portland Pet Food Company.

The Flawless Foundation

This nonprofit seeks to revolutionize the way the world perceives, prevents and treats brain-based behavioral challenges. It also offers yoga programs at specialized schools for mental health and behaviorally challenged children.

flawlessfoundation.org

Necklace and keychain

The foundation is offering a handcrafted sterling silver Flawless necklace for $75 and a handcrafted leather and silver keychain for $20. Each comes in a small canvas bag hand-stamped with the Flawless peacock. All proceeds support the foundation's local yoga programs for kids at specialized schools. The items are available online only.

PHAME

PHAME inspires adults with developmental disabilities to lead full, creative lives through arts education classes, performance, and community-building events.

phamepdx.org

Prints & art cards

Limited-edition 11-by-14-inch color prints and art cards featuring student work are available online. Order by Dec. 15 to get yours by Dec. 25. PHAME's annual Winter Concert will be at 2 p.m. Jan. 22 at First Presbyterian Church, 1200 SW Alder St.

COURTESY PHOTO

COURTESY PHOTO

The Forest Park Conservancy

Forest Park Conservancy recruits 1,000 volunteers annually to maintain trails, restore habitat and provide educational hikes within our largest urban forest. Purchasing a gift from conservancy supports its work to restore and protect Forest Park.

210 NW 17th Ave., Suite 201
forestparkconservancy.org

COURTESY PHOTO

For hikers

The conservancy is offering a rain- and wear-resistant Trail Map and Visitor's Guide to Forest Park featuring loop hikes and runs, driving directions to trailheads and highlights along each loop; "I heart Forest Park" dog leashes and T-shirts; beautifully-detailed poster maps of the park by a local artist; and more.