

March on

Scenes from the Women's March on Portland

Estimates on the Women's March on Portland place the crowd at approximately 100,000 people on Jan. 21. The massive event was one of many around the world protesting the Trump administration and its proposed policies against women's reproductive rights, health care, immigration, the environment and numerous other issues. The event coincided with a national march on Washington, D.C.

Photos by Joseph Glode

