She Sits Blue

by Sandy J. Tennyson

Sitting on her bottom, legs up,
 and her head in her arms.
 Maybe she is thinking of her charms.
 Deep in thought on how she's fought for her sanity.

What goes on in her head?
 Days gone by, oh my, she's bled
 to the tune of needing meds.
 What can she do to ease the pain?
 I hope she finds out how to gain.

She is truly all alone as an island
 and often makes the journey off to cryland.
 There she suffers the losses she feels and there is no buffer for her.

Dark places occupy her mind.
 I think it's a shame because she is really very kind.
 What a waste of a formidable person,
 when all was done in such haste.

A broken heart is impossible to deal with for some people.
 A heavy heart is really hard to heal.
