

No Right 2 Exist

by Saoirse Bell

Don't panhandle there or we will impose
a $225 ticket for improper position
for the imposition
of your poverty
on our citizens of property

Don't repose there or we will impose
a criminal history
for the imposition
of your poverty
on our citizens of property

Don't subsist there or we will insist on your removal
for the imposition
of your poverty
on our citizens of property

The Dream

by Daniel Cox

Capitalists stole the American dream,
It got rid of the middle man
And went right for the poor.
The country cannot afford anymore.
The system is malfunctioning
There is no more order in the courts.
Every man, woman, child
Who is not influenced by the rich
Hold the cord.
World on their backs.

Hanging in there

by Eileen Vizenor

My heart breaks each day when:
I watch the news.
I read the newspaper.
I witness the homeless trying to survive.
I hear of senior abuse.
I hear of child abuse.
I hear of animal abuse.
I hear of hate crimes.
I hear of police brutality.
I hear of public assistance on the demise.
I hear of America's continued division.

These days are scary which hinders my Faith in people, and our country.

However, I hang on to hope thanks to My customers and my small circle of Friends for their kindness. They help Me to stay positive.
