

Poems Under Different Names

by Avendor

I swept the throne room
of the king
I kept the dolphins and heard them sing
At the foot of the tower
I begged for change and read these poems
under different names.
I carried the quartz scepter through the kingdom in the clouds I met you in the valleys far from the maddening crowd And often when, the mythical birds of morning began to chirp
I had my sweat, and your tears dampening my shirt.
And so if you ever find yourself alone and brokenhearted by the Thames You can read these poems
under different names.

If I Were an Animal or Bird, I Would Be

by Nathan

Crazy like a fox,
wily and reclusive,
And in fear of publicity,
And in fear of people,
But strong and durable;
I will always get along Because I am smarter than you smell.
