Uplifted

Street Roots vendors Harry Richards, Paul West and Irene took an airplane ride over Portland this month thanks to private pilot Richard Greensted. Richard took the group for a two-hour ride to take in the scenic vistas of the Willamette Valley and west end of the Columbia River Gorge.

The airplane ride was the inaugural event in Street Roots' Health, Wellness and Leisure Program, in which Street Roots will be taking vendors to fun events outside of the office each month to thank them for the work they do.

Street Roots shows our Pride

For the fifth year in a row, Street Roots participated in the annual Portland Pride parade. More than 60 members of the Street Roots family, including more than 20 vendors, marched through the streets, standing up for equity, inclusion and solidarity with our LGBTQ-identifying brothers and sisters. Nearly 1 out of 10 Street Roots vendors identifies as queer or transgender.
