

Close Your Eyes and See

by Zaina

Close your eyes
See with your ears
The trees rustle as they sway
The grass swishing along
To and fro the plants dance
To the swoosh of the wind
Creeks and Streams, Rivers and Tides
Flow with whisper and roar
The birds tweet and whistle a song
As crickets chirp and bugs buzz

Close your eyes
See by touch
Feel the warm sunshine
Through the cool breeze's blow
As the grass tickles with its dance
Feel the cool wet dew
Drip from leaves and fronds
Rest on blades of grass
Enjoy the cool breezy shade
Under the rustling trees

Close your eyes
See with your nose
Take a refreshing deep breath
The sweet fragrance of flowers
Glides through the breezy air

The scent of fresh wet grass
Softly drifts along
The beautiful aromas of wood
From all the different trees
All the smells swirl about
On the soft sweet gentle flowing breeze

Close your eyes
See right through your eyelids
Hear the natural music
No instrument could beat
Feel the relaxing nature around
No machine could build or grow
Smell the calming natural Eau de Breeze
No perfume could more fragrant blow

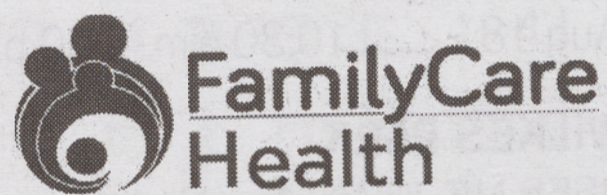

Open your eyes
See more than ever before
See beyond the images
Eyes collect and show
There is so much more to see
That eyes will never know
Experience the universe
Let no detail go
Anywhere can be
A perfect joyful meadow

A Street Person's Romance

by Maddy Brown-Clark

In the dying light of the sun
I hear your voice in the wind
Calling me exquisitely
And in the waning moon
I see your face, your eyes
Tenderly undressing me
And this love so you tell me
To never be alone again
But when emotions reign
And run away with you
The path always leads back to you
As we keep others warm
Then there's silence
For you don't speak
Yet your feelings still caress me
Then I quietly leave you
Longing on the street
