

The Good Poem

by Avendor

Gotta get back to sowing words and planting poetrees

God tilt
your watering tin and rain down upon me

On this planet you'll find pomegranates and children with cosmic dreams

Yeah our souls can get a little dirty but they can always be scrubbed clean

So lets build aqueducts and work to sustain a healthy field of play

And if we can.
for Christ sake man
get some love at the end of the day

Fret not these battles nor these thorns for they'll melt away like wax

And a garden of Eden with towns and cities will surely welcome us back

A day in May!

by Jaison Kirk

Fires burning in the streets Fueled by the drum beats
By the river in the city of roses.
All the actors and pantomimes caught in poses.

When the time comes we all have to pay the piper
A rose in her prime will always get ripier.

Anything is Better Than This or How Crazy People Get Elected

by Peter Salzmänn

I can't stand it anymore Can't find my keys
Can't find the door
Can't even get off the floor Can't really see
Is it you or me
That has to change
To something strange
I can't get out
I want to shout
I want escape
And I don't care
Just what I dare
I'll vote for Trump, because he's mad Because I'm sad
All in a rage
Destroy my cage
