Her Garden

by Lori Boettcher

What do you think
About the homeless?
A distant family member
Asked with much disdain

She swallows her
Pride, dignity bruised
With shame, attempts
To bring awareness, I live
In an RV without an address
Homelessness has no bias

Years of abuse she Cannot erase
Her body weak, brain
Devoured, addiction a
Pleasant escape

Rows of flowers
A swing in the garden
Her dream house
Cottage, cherished
Family gone for an Easy money making
Flip

Vomit the pain
Swallow some pills
She floats back to her
Beautiful garden

Quietly she slips into
The darkness
Take a peak, can Anyone see? Hurriedly
Washing coffee cans, a
New updated lavatory

Housing programs
Swirling in circles,
Thick red tape, another
Waiting list, a daunting
Process, how to stay Warm? Too cold to Concentrate

Obsorb the light, warm
The face
A glimmer of hope
Please God how Long must I wait?
