

STREET ROOTS HOLIDAY PARTY

A feast with friends

About 100 vendors attended Street Roots' annual holiday party this year. They dined on turkey, ham, macaroni and cheese, green beans, mashed potatoes, stuffing and three types of pie.

Simpatica, Chef's Table and Grand Central Bakery donated all the food for the Dec. 7 party, which was held at St. André Bessette Catholic Church.

"I love the stuffing," vendor Daniel Cox said. "I look forward to the stuffing every year."

Volunteer Paul Gefroh hosted bingo and Christmas trivia, and 12 vendors walked away with prizes.

The party was attended by Street Roots vendors, staff and volunteers. Twenty-two volunteers served food, handed out gifts and took photos. Much gratitude to all who made the party possible.
