Friends Forever
by Avendor

Give me five with your palm do it with conviction like a psalm.
Prepare a banquet before me in front of my enemies set me up with a girl at the Café of the Trees.
And in days to come in this city of puddles where dreams take shelter with pasts so muddled; Arc a rainbow down the avenue and in the park hidden from view;
We'll talk of battles fought and creeds to be borne and how our friendship will remain untorn.

Kart Karma
by Douglas "Wookie" Marcks

Cart tips
"Not again," I yell
Don't want to ditch it But I should
It got stolen
But later found
Half the belongings gone
Duffel and mummy bag Trash bag tossed
I laugh
Didn't get the satellite "dummy"
Then find cart Couldn't move it, huh? Ha!
But it was a gift
From a stranger at first But now, a friend!

Been and Gone
by Mary Daniels

The idea of "I am always there for you" I have never known Because so many times I have been and gone.
And I've left great people within their roots While I've picked myself up, put on my boots
And for some good reason, I thought at the time I left, and I traveled, and moved down the line.

Not figures firmly in one landscape of my life, Instead my friends are milestones, large, bright, Gifts self-given, gifts self-got However briefly, however not However short, however long Because so many times I have been and gone.

Sheeptost

by Elizabeth Considine

Cannabis is now a multibillion-dollar industry in the United States with growing corporate interests.

DON'T LET THEM CASH IN ON POT, WHEN THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE (MOSTLY PEOPLE OF COLOR)
ARE STILL IN JAIL
