

street roots

only

$1

WEEKLY APRIL 21-MAY 3, 2018 NEWS STREETROOTS.ORG

May 11th - 17th

Guns, capitalism and race

A conversation with radical thinker, writer and labor leader, Bill Fletcher Jr.

GETTY IMAGES/ISTOCKPHOTO

"History is very unforgiving about lost opportunities. At certain moments there are windows that are opened, and if you don't jump through that window, at that time, the window shuts, and it's very hard to open that window up."

- BILL FLETCHER JR.

SR

WHAT'S INSIDE

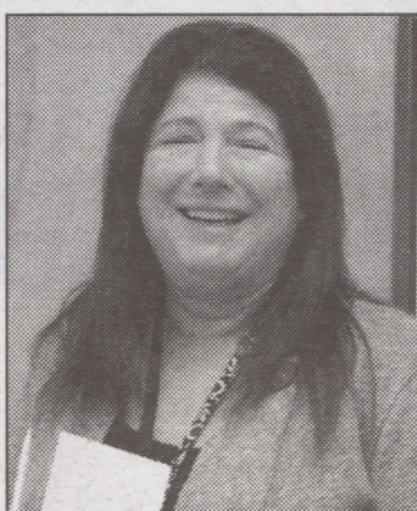

Humanity, in chorus

The Maybelle Community Singers take the stage at the Schnitz

Page 8

CULTURE

One way or another

Back Door Café a place of respite for Central Oregon's homeless

Page 10

RURAL HOUSING

Rich Pounds

"My main goal is to make people happy. I need work to do that."

Page 6

VENDORS