

Revolution

by Brent Zapushek

Production consumption
This thing that decides
The power that flows
From the people that hide

Back here into our lives
From the money we make
When we give it to them
They put us in our place

In life at the bottom
They say we decide?
Without living wages
Most of us here will die

Overcome by a system
That feeds off the masses
Lowers our freedoms
Then raises our taxes

As they take more pay
And own many mansions
The countries they invade
For corporate expansions

For we the people
We don't even exist
They aren't even here
They live not in our midst

If we could carry together
One message and send
It should go like we realize
We outnumber them

Absolutely Nothing

by Jason Everly

My fellow soldiers scoff
When I exclaim,
"I am a soldier in a war!"
They have been blinded from the truth
A turn of mind, a closer look
And they would see
The wounds
We shoot ourselves
With 10cc barrels
29 gauge 1/2" bullets
1,000 yard stare

Fighting an enemy within Holding our spirit hostage
We are confused
The enemy looks like us
Exactly
So we shoot ourselves
And we are rewarded
With the vegetable serenity
And we are confused
How is this a war?

But I walk the front-lines
E'rday
The War Zones of Old Town
Chinatown
Felony Flats
The impoverished sections of my city
Where this war is really being fought
I see the flat eyes of other soldiers
Pinned

And yet they persist
Morpheus riding them like a stallion
Popping that hindquarter
Insisting he be fed
To the soundtrack of Ride of the Valkyries

We could die
Today
Tomorrow
We could kick
Today
Tomorrow

Gonna' kick tomorrow, gonna kick
tomorrow
