

street roots

only $1

WEEKLY JULY 27-AUG. 2, 2018 NEWS.STREETROOTS.ORG

The El Paso Chronicles

Three essays from the Mexican border

REUTERS/CHRIS WATTE

"The wall is made of metal. It was frozen, very cold, but people did not care, and they stuck their faces there in the metal, just to hug the children with their little faces stuck to the metal."

- MÓNICA LOZANO

SR WHAT'S INSIDE

Fighting a world of hate

How one woman went from victim to crusader to change the world's hate culture

Page 8

CULTURE

Vendor Voices

We asked our crew, What can be done to improve police relations with people on the street?

Page 7

COMMUNITY

Melissa

"People can do anything they put their mind to."

Page 6

VENDORS