A gathering of Nations

The inaugural Tribal Nations Summit was held Friday, Sept. 28, to celebrate the official launch of the city's new Tribal Relations Program and the formalization of the city's relationship with tribal government partners.

Portland's Tribal Relations Program is dedicated to building partnerships, collaborations and diplomacy with tribal nations in the region. Tribal government officials from the Cowlitz, Nez Perce, Grand Ronde, Siletz, Umatilla, Warm Springs and Yakama Tribes were represented.

The day-long event included a summit of elected tribal and city leaders and cultural training for city employees. Mayor Ted Wheeler said the event "makes good on a long overdue promise to deepen our relationships with tribal government partners."
