SERVANTS OF THE PEOPLE.

And an Educated, Reading and Thinking Constitution are Reporting They Will Act Their Part Well—Biographical Sketches—Benjamin F. Alley.

B. F. Alley, holdover Senator from Lane county, was born in New York State in 1840. His early life was full of hardships and struggles for an education. For a number of years he made his home in Illinois, enlisting in the army in 1861 and marching with Sherman to the sea. In 1874 Mr. Alley moved to California and later in 1883 to Oregon. In 1890 he settled with his wife at Florence, establishing The West, a weekly newspaper, of which he has since been sole editor and proprietor. Mr. Alley has twice been elected Mayor of Florence. He was a prominent figure of the Legislature of 1893, and is a free-silver Republican.

F. A. Bancroft, Senator from Multnomah county, is the local freight agent of the Southern Pacific railroad. He resides in East Portland, and has always been an ardent believer in the future prosperity of Oregon and Portland. Mr. Bancroft is a Republican, and was elected to the Senate in 1892.

Henry Beckley, Senator from Douglas county, was born in Indiana in 1833. His family removed to Missouri in 1840, and in 1853 Mr. Beckley came to Oregon, settling in Douglas county. He has engaged at various times in mining, farming and milling. In 1878 Mr. Beckley established the town of Elkton, where he is still a large property-owner and heavily interested in the milling business. He was elected Senator in 1892 as the candidate of the Democratic and People's party.

George C. Brownell, Senator from Clackamas county, was born in New York State in 1856. He was admitted to the bar in Kansas, where he held several important public offices. Mr. Brownell came to Oregon in 1881, locating at Oregon City, where he speedily acquired a reputation as an able lawyer and became a prominent figure in political affairs. He was a delegate to the Oregon State Republican Conventions in 1892-4 from Clackamas county, and was elected State Senator in 1894, having a good majority over his Democratic and Populist opponents.

John E. Calbreath, Senator from Yamhill county, was born in West Virginia in 1854. He crossed the plains to Oregon in 1868, and settled in Benton county, where he engaged in farming and attended the Philomath College. At the age of 18 he commenced the study of medicine, graduating from the medical department of the University of California in 1875. After practicing at Lafayette with Dr. H. R. Littlefield from 1876 to 1886 he moved to McMinnville, where he is now engaged in the profession. Dr. Calbreath is a stalwart Republican.

Tolbert Carter, Senator from Benton county, was born in Illinois in 1825, and after a youth of hardships came to Oregon as a pioneer in 1848. After mining for a time in California, where he also engaged in mercantile pursuits, Mr. Carter settled upon his Oregon homestead, which has since been his home. He was elected as Representative in 1878 and 1882, and again nominated by the Republicans and elected a member of the present House in 1894.

C. A. Cogswell, Senator from Lake county, was born in Vermont in 1844. During the war with the South he fought under General Sherman, and subsequently removed to Goose Lake Valley in Lake county, where he has since resided. He is a lawyer by profession and enjoys a lucrative practice. Mr. Cogswell was elected State Senator in 1888 as a Democrat, and re-elected to the same office in 1892 by double his former majority.

S. A. Dawson, Senator from Linn county, was born in Indiana in 1862. After a temporary residence in Illinois he came to Linn county, Or., in 1861. For several years he engaged in different ventures in Oregon, Washington and Montana, but returned to McMinnville in 1866, where he has since made his home. Mr. Dawson has always taken an active interest in politics. He was elected to the House in 1880 and to the Senate in 1886 and again in 1894.

J. O. N. Denny, was born in Ohio in 1838. He came to Oregon with his parents in 1852, locating in Linn county. His early life was full of struggles and grandly overcome. In 1862 Judge Denny was admitted to the bar and practiced law at The Dalles, and was shortly afterward appointed County and Probate Judge by Governor Gibbs. After holding several offices and refusing others, he accepted the position of American Consul to Tien Tsin, China, to which he was appointed by President Hayes in 1877. While in China Judge Denny was a close friend of Li Hung Chang, and it was through his influence that he had only followed his advice as regards Corea, he would not be in his present dilemma. Judge Denny was elected as State Senator from Multnomah county on the Republican ticket in 1892, and rendered the State great service at the last session of the Legislature.

W. H. Hobson, Senator from Marion county, was born in Tennessee in 1846. He came to Oregon with his parents as an infant in 1847. The family settled in Marion county, where Mr. Hobson has since resided. He has been engaged in the mercantile business at Stayton since 1868. Mr. Hobson has always been a Republican.

Samuel H. Holt, Senator from Jackson county, was born in East Tennessee. He enlisted in the Federal army in 1861 as a member of the First Regiment, and served for nearly four years. He moved to Indiana in 1866, and came to Oregon in 1881, locating in Jackson county, where he has since resided. Mr. Holt cast his last Republican vote for President Hayes. He is now in the Populist ranks.

A. J. Johnson, Senator from Linn county, is a native son of Oregon, having been born in Marion county in 1857. His youth was passed on a farm near Scio. Since 1888 Mr. Johnson has lived chiefly in Scio, engaging part of the time in mercantile pursuits, and since 1892 has conducted the Bank of Scio. He is a stalwart Republican, and has held several offices with credit to his constituents. As a legislator he will do his duty as he understands it for the benefit of the whole State.

Will E. King, joint Senator for Baker and Malheur counties, is the youngest member of the Senate. He was born near Walla Walla, Wash., in 1864, and removed with his parents to Malheur, then a part of Baker county—in 1878. Mr. King removed to Baker City in 1893, where he has established an extensive law practice. In 1892 he was county, was born in Ohio in 1837. His parents moved to Indiana where he was a mere child, and in 1856 Mr. McClung came to Oregon by the Indian route. He settled at Eugene in June of that year, and has since made his home in that city. From 1860 to 1873 he was United States Deputy Surveyor in Eastern Oregon, and on returning home was elected to the House from Lane county in 1874. In 1883 Mr. McClung formed a partnership with A. J. Johnson to carry on a general merchandise business. Mr. Johnson retired in 1891, and Mr. McClung now conducts alone one of the largest dry goods establishments in Lane county. In June, 1894, he was elected State Senator, as a Republican, for four years, and will have a chance to vote for two United States Senators.

H. E. McGinn, Senator from Multnomah county, is one of Oregon's native sons. He has earned name and fame as a lawyer of great acuteness, and as a leader at the bar has few equals in oratorical powers in the Northwest. Mr.

McGinn has served two terms in Multnomah county, is too well known by reputation throughout the length and breadth of Oregon to need for any extended notice necessary. As long ago as 1877 Mr. McGinn was a member of Portland's Common Council, and he afterward served twelve years in the State Senate, during eight years of which he was President of that body. Mr. McGinn has always been a politician, and like all strong men has made hosts of friends as well as enemies during his career. Outside of politics he is a man of recognized executive ability, and has handled many important affairs, such as the Oregon Improvement Company, of which he was receiver, with distinguished success.

C. H. Woodard, hold-over Senator from Multnomah county, was elected on the citizens' ticket in 1892, being the only candidate so elected. He is well known throughout the entire Northwest in Eastern Oregon. He is a leading merchant of Fruit and one of the mainstays of the town. Aside being elected Senator as a Republican in 1892, Mr. Steiner has held several other important offices.

W. S. Vanderburg, Senator from Coos county, was born in Iowa in 1858, and came to Oregon in 1884, settling a year later in Coos county. For fifteen years he has been engaged in the meat and grocery business in Marshfield. Mr. Vanderburg was Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture in the Legislature of 1892. He is an ardent advocate for reform in State and national legislation and in every sense a man of the people.

J. A. Smith, joint Senator from Sherman and Wasco counties, was born in California in 1862. Upon attaining his majority he came to Oregon, and settled in that part of the State now known as Sherman county. Mr. Smith and his afterward engaged in the cattle business in Eastern Oregon. He is a leading merchant of Fruit and one of the mainstays of the town. Aside being elected Senator as a Republican in 1892, Mr. Steiner has held several other important offices.

W. S. Vanderburg, Senator from Coos county, was born in Iowa in 1858, and came to Oregon in 1884, settling a year later in Coos county. For fifteen years he has been engaged in the meat and grocery business in Marshfield. Mr. Vanderburg was Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture in the Legislature of 1892. He is an ardent advocate for reform in State and national legislation and in every sense a man of the people.
