A very pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Starr on Saturday last, by a jolly crowd of young people from Dayton. The evening was spent in music and games. Those present were Misses Allie and Nina Baxter, Wesa Bertram, Ora Mellinger, Mamie McCann, Anna Long, Louisa Jones, Carrie Findlay Emma Starr, Gusta Armstrong, Bernice Corner, Effie Likens, Winnie Baxter; Messrs. Gene and Roy Gabriel, Charlie Bishop, Frank and Eddie Seem, Gharlie DeForde, Guy Young, Sherwood Corner, Antrim Stevens, Albert Dunn, Ralph and Harry Starr, Elmer Baxter, Fred Holman, Charlie and John Starr.

A young man, nooterman on the Oregon City and Portland electric car line, came to Mission on a hunt last week. Saturday he started from Brentano's to Horeeshoe lake. Crossing the lake he lost his way and wandered around through underbrush in the Willamette river bottom, until he came to the river just opposite Weston. By firing his gun and yelling he aroused Art Shipman, who was in his cabin on this side of river, (it then being 10 o'clock at night). Art answered him, inquiring what was the matter. After getting an understanding of the situation, Art crossed the river in a boat, and brought the young man, who gave his name as Welch, across to this side. Welch was considerably excited and Shipman had considerable sport at his expense; it was, however, no laughing matter to the victim. He was set on his way rejoicing at his deliverance.

According to established custom of the A. O. U. W. Monday last was observed as memorial day by Harmony lodge A. O. U. W. and Unity lodge D. of H. of Dayton. Exercises were held in the lodge room in the evening, which was open to the public. Past Master Workman J. E. Mellinger, made a short address at the opening of exercises, explaining why the day was observed and the benefits of being a member of the order. His remarks were appropriate and suggestive. After music by the choir came an excellent recitation by Miss Ora Mellinger; then music by the choir. Rev. H. L. Pratt of Hillsboro, then made the address of the evening in which he alluded to the many who having lost a protector by the death of a husband and father, had been protected and cared for by the A. O. U. W. After the address by Rev. Pratt, a short time was spent in hand shaking and renewing social ties. Two vacant chairs were neatly draped in mourning; on one was printed the name of Father Upchurch, the founder of the order, and on the other was the name of Mrs. A. N. Lowe, a deceased member of Unity lodge D. of H.

Last Wednesday evening when the steamer Modoc came up, Capt. Short and Purser Cook called upon J. W. Fishburn and requested him to write to Capt. Fiske, superintendent of the U. S. engineer corps on the Willamette and Yamhill rivers, and insist that something be done to remove the heavy land slide in the Yamhill river east of here, as the bottom of the boats scraped the entire length of the slide on the trip up. Mr. Fishburn complied with their request, officially as city recorder, and demanded that something be done at once. He also wrote to several of the wholesale houses in Portland asking them to call on Mr. Fiske and interview him in reference to the slide. Mr. Fiske wrote stating that he would do something to improve the situation at once. On Tuesday evening a Mr. Freeman came up, and on Wednesday morning went on board the steamer Eugene which conveyed him to the slide so that he could make soundings and device means to remove the obstructions. We feel assured that something will be done soon to clear the channel of the river making navigation as safe and good as before the slide occurred.

Died—At Wheatland, Monday, January 19, 1897, L. C. Forest, aged 64 years. Deceased has been ill several months. He was one of the early settlers in Yamhill county, and engaged in the merchandise business in Wheatland. During the time he has lived in this county he has accumulated considerable property. He was very liberal and it is said assisted many who were in straitened circumstances. The funeral services were held in Hopewell church Tuesday, Rev. J. W. Bowersox of Salem, officiating, in interment in Hopewell cemetery.

Mr. Editor—The Christian church of Dayton would like to announce through the HERALD that they have secured the services of Elder Sickafosse for their pastor for the year. Hoping good work may be done for the Master, and with this aim in view we invite the public to all our meetings. Preaching 1st and 3d Sunday of each month. A. MEMBERS.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

To the teachers, school officers and patrons of the public schools of Yamhill county:

The next session of the Yamhill county teachers' association will be held in McMinnville Jan. 29 and 30. The association will convene on Friday evening, the 29th, at 7:30, in the Christian church. Pres. Chapman of the State University, of Eugene, and Pres. Campbell, of the State Normal, at Monmouth, will occupy the evening. Their addresses will be along lines of educational work. These gentlemen are both well known as able educators, and we cannot afford to miss this opportunity of gaining new thought and renewed inspiration in our chosen field of work. We bespeak a large attendance of both teachers and patrons. The Saturday session will convene in the Columbus school building at 10 o'clock. The subjects for discussion are: spelling, penmanship and normal training and instruction. Presidents Campbell and Chapman will be present throughout the day. Let us have a rally. Yours for good schools. "As is the teacher, so is the scholar." G. A. PRENTISS, Supt.
