An Interesting Collection of Specimens of the Two Headed Monsters Presented to a Captured Slave.

A collection of the two-headed specimens of the two-headed monster, presented to a captured slave, was shown to the public at the Dayton Herald Building, 100 North Third Street, yesterday afternoon. The collection was made up of two specimens of the two-headed monster, one of which was a female, and the other a male. The female specimen was a young girl, who was born in the city of Dayton, Ohio, and was the daughter of a prominent citizen. The male specimen was a young man, who was born in the city of Dayton, Ohio, and was the son of a prominent citizen. The two-headed monster was a rare and interesting specimen, and the collection was a great attraction to the public.

Another citizenship question has arisen between this government and Germany. An American citizen named Meyer has been imported into military service by the German government. The state department has requested his release.

Eight-year-old Emma Kinsling, who drank some lemonade which was kept in a tin bucket over night, died at Danville, Cal., from the effects of the poison. Eighteen scholars who drank of the stuff are sick. The bodies of the children were taken to the hospital at Danville, Cal., and the children are being treated.

Consul-General Melzer, at Kanton, Japan, reports to the state department that, according to current reports, the Japanese government is about to send a commission to Washington for the purpose of influencing a reduction of the increased import duties, which, according to the American papers, it is proposed to levy on silk. The imperial diet has passed a bill allowing a bonus to exporters of raw silk.

There will be an encampment of the Oregon National Guard this year. It will be the latter part of June or first of July. It will continue from six to ten days. An effort is being made by the agricultural board of Oregon to have the encampment postponed until September 30, and to have it then held on the state fair grounds, in conjunction with the fair. The selection of a place has been left to General Becke.

The Greek cabinet ministers who have returned from the Greek frontier seem to be in favor of a continuance of the war. Altogether, fourteen officers have been recalled from Crete to be sent to Thessaly, and this is also proof of the intention of the new cabinet to continue the war. The movement was started by necessity. All the best officers are being sent to the front, and there is no one left to be sent to Thessaly.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the funeral home of J. H. B. Co., 100 North Third Street, for the late J. H. B. Co., who died at the age of 70.

The Santa Fe purchased the Atlantic & Pacific railroad at a foreclosure sale for $12,000,000.

The Transval will observe the queen's jubilee day as a holiday as a token of appreciation.

A big fire in Pittsburgh, Pa., destroyed $3,000,000 worth of property, and resulted in one death and the injury of four persons.

The banking-house of J. B. Wheeler & Co., in Manitou and Aspen, Colo., have gone into the hands of assignees. No reason is given by the directors.

W. D. Case, of Pittsburgh, Columbia county, and J. W. Duncan, of Umatilla, Umatilla county, Oregon, have been appointed fourth-class postmasters.

A Washington special says that it has been definitely decided that National Commissioner J. E. Boyd, of North Carolina, will be appointed solicitor of internal revenue.

Colonel John Hay, the newly appointed United States ambassador to England, was received with unusual distinction while presenting his credentials to the queen at Windsor castle.

Johanna Speth, widow of Jacob Speth, is suing Kate & Sons, salvage manufacturers, of San Francisco, for $100,000 damages. Her husband was killed in the defense of a factory and the widow charges the firm with being responsible on account of negligence.

President McKinley has sent to congress a memorial asking the granting of three Italian at Haverhill, Va., August 9, 1904. He recommended an appropriation of $40,000 for the benefit of the persons without admitting the liability of the United States in the premises.

In the German reichstag, Count von Kanitz, the agrarian leader, interpellated the government on the subject of the proposed United States tariff. He asked if the government wished to continue the agreement of 1901, and said the Dingley bill implied less the increase of American customs revenue than the successful expulsion of European imports from American markets.

The effect of the action of the finance committee of the senate in throwing out the house provision in reference to the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty, has been the subject of some comment. One member of the committee says it is the intention of the committee to deal with the matter hereafter. The effect of the bill as it stands, he says will not be to impose a duty on Hawaiian sugar. Some amendment to regulate this will be prepared, but just what form it will take has not been determined.

Ex-Vice-President Stevenson will sail from New York for Havre this week in company with Messrs. Wolcott and Payne, the other members of the bimetallic commission. The commission will first visit Paris and later the other capitals of Europe, probably London, Rome, and Berlin.

Admiral Meade (retired), United States navy, who has been ill for three weeks, died in Washington. Dr. C. G. Adair, Meade's physician, said that the admiral was suffering from appendicitis. An operation was performed, but he failed to rally. He will be buried with military honors.
