Charles Hadley and wife left here on Tuesday for Southern Oregon. They go by team, and will remain a great part of the summer, hoping that Mrs. Hadley's health will be benefited by the trip. They will camp near Medford or Ashland.

One day this week quite a large piece of glass passed from one of Dr. E. M. Smith's children, who had been complaining of considerable pain in the bowels several days. Considerable blood was discharged. Dr. Smith was in Portland at the time.

John Bradley and son Nathan of the Dayton livery stable, has done good work in plowing and grading opening the ditches on the sides so that the water can run off, on the alley back of their barn. This work should be continued on the alley at least to Second street giving an outlet for the water down the drain on Ferry street.

L. Wambagan has employed Geo. Shively of McMinnville, to assist him in the Dayton market. Mr. Shively is an experienced hand in the meat business, and hopes to give satisfaction in that line by fair and courteous dealing. He expects to bring his family to Dayton in the future. Wm. Tucker who has been attending the market is assisting Mr. Wambagan on his fruit ranch.

On Monday Nichols & Gabriel started No. 2, red peddling wagon on the road, in charge of L. H. DeFord. Leonard is not restricted to any certain territory, and has the whole of Yamhill county to canvas, if necessary. L. H. will no doubt round up at headquarters here with a good report and something substantial in the way of coin and produce, as a result of his trips.

Any one who doubts that a bank would pay in Dayton, let them inform themselves as to the amount of banking business done by citizens of this place and immediate vicinity. Don't take the word of disinterested or outside parties, who may be directly or indirectly interested in the success of some bank or brokers shop. Carefully investigate for yourself and see if cold figures will not justify our assertion that a bank will pay in Dayton.

J. Bradley is now the possessor of a fine colt, one from Van S. The colt is the foal of a mare over 20 years old, and which was poor, but the colt is sprightly and fine looking. There is something of a joke connected with the above. The night before the colt was born Nathan Bradley was doctoring the mare for colic, and had got a lot of medicine from Dr. Smith, which he administered to the animal until a late hour in the night. The next morning Mr. Bradley was somewhat surprised to find that the mare had a fine colt. Nathan can afford to be a little proud of the animal.

Dayton has had a good representation of business men added to her ranks the past week or two from McMinnville. They are Adolf Matthies, the merchant, Mr. Kegg, who is assisting Mr. Matthies in his store, Wm. Logan, who is temporarily assisting Z. Spangler in his barber shop, and George Shively who is employed in the Dayton Market. There is room here for more of McMinnville's enterprising business men. Why not come to a live town and the head of navigation.

Because Old Hickory Band of Dayton, is a new organization, is no reason that it does not make good music. A. H. Robinson, the leader, is a natural musician and good instructor, and there are a number of old musicians who are members, and lead off in good style carrying the other members with them making good time. The band enlivens the town with some good music in the evenings, and makes it appear more cheerful and lively. Help the band whenever you can.

Quite a venerable wedding anniversary was celebrated in our little city on Tuesday. It was that of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cain, who celebrated the 40th anniversary of their marriage. There were present 29 persons, all relatives—children and grandchildren. An excellent dinner was served, and a very pleasant time enjoyed. Mr. Cain is 65 years age, Mrs. Cain 71. This office was remembered with some of the good things of the happy occasion.

I will have a special sale of all my Millinery Goods on Saturday May 22d and Monday 24th. Now is the season for picnics, and those wanting hats, gloves, mits or other articles in the millinery line for those occasions, will do well to call and see goods and get prices. I will make a great reduction in prices at this sale. Come and see for yourself. Mrs. LOUISA BAXTER.

Carl Williams left here Monday for Portland on his bicycle. He expected to join a party in that city who are going to Eastern Oregon with J. W. Shafford, to construct telephone lines for the Oregon Telegraph & Telephone Co. Their destination was Mora, Grant county. Carl will be chief cook.

The D. of H. at their meeting on Tuesday night took in several new members, among them were Mr. and Mrs. LaFever of Whiteson. After lodge meeting, the ladies spread an excellent supper; after which a pleasant social was enjoyed. The membership of the D. of H. is on the increase.

"They are dandies" said Thos. Bowers, of the Crocket, Texas Enterprise, while writing about De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver. Harris Bros.

Mrs. Logan who keeps boarding house on Alder street supplies her tables with fresh vegetables, fruits and the best that the market affords. Take a Sunday dinner with her.

Best material used in the manufacture of the Wm. Lambert Star Savon. As good as any soap in the market.

Louis LaBonte, who has been living with his son at Grand Ronde, came over from the reservation last week. Although over 80 years of age Mr. LaBonte came most of the distance on foot, arriving the same day on which he started at J. B. Fuson's, where he stopped over night. Mr. LaBonte is closely identified with the early history of Oregon, having come here with Lewis and Clark. He took up a claim adjoining the farm now owned by J. B. Fuson. The farm on which R. N. Snell lives is a part of the LaBonte place. LaBonte will live with one of his sons near St. Paul, Marion county. His history, which will be published in a book, is now being written by a Portland man. It is well to preserve a record of these hardy old pioneers, who are fast stepping off the stage of life, and giving place to a younger generation.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held an interesting meeting Thursday 13th, in the M. E. church. The forenoon was devoted to making plans and arrangements for the coming summer. Mrs. Unruh of McMinnville, who has lately returned from a lecturing and organizing tour in the East, was engaged to do some of the same work in Yamhill county. The afternoon meeting was addressed by Mrs. Unruh, and also by Mrs. Votaw, county superintendent of evangelistic work. These were also remarks by citizens of Dayton. The meeting was spicy and profitable. A good delegation was present from McMinnville and Newberg.

If any organization of Dayton desires a place in the procession on Decoration Day, they will please confer with J. T. Watson, chairman of the program committee.

R. L. HARRIS, S. S. DUNCAN.

Another thing needed in Dayton is a good flouring mill. It would be a great assistance in building up the town.

Wm. Kun, the confectioner and baker of McMinnville, keeps at all times a stock of almost every kind of tropical fruit.

Don't let the cat lick the dishes, but make nice soft soap with Soap Foam. Directions on each package. NICHOLS & GABRIEL.
