

Mal David is home from Idaho, where he has been surveying. With two companions, he played a job all the way home. They gave it out that they were just from Klondike and had brought home $350,000. They were tossed every where, given free board, and held attentive audiences spellbound with the narration of the hardships of the Klondike regions. In Walla Walla a prominent citizen drove around with them in his carriage and showed them every honor. They received free board at the best hotel; people flocked around to hear something of the new Florida. This is a good sample of the wild credulity of the public under gold excitement.—Graphic.

Extra efforts are being made to make the State Fair this year the most successful in its history. This certainly can be done, as the state has been blessed with abundant crops both of fruits, cereals, vegetables and other products of the farm. Stock of all kind is in good condition, and look well. Taking it all in all we cannot see why the state fair of 1897 cannot, and should not be a grand success. To assist in making the fair a success the Southern Pacific Railroad Co. have decided to sell tickets from all stations on its lines in Oregon, at one fare for the round trip. The fair opens September 30 and closes October 8.

The Indianapolis Journal prints this interesting story concerning ex-President Harrison's forthcoming book: General Harrison has just completed the revision of his articles which have appeared in the Ladies' Home Journal, making extended notes and additions to them. There is a little story in connection with both articles and publication. When the arrangement for the articles was made with General Harrison by Edward W. Bok, editor of The Ladies' Home Journal, the general was paid for them, with the understanding that when they were put into book form the magazine was to share the royalties accruing therefrom. Mr. Bok, however, of his own accord, generously released General Harrison from paying him any royalty, for the reason, as he states, that by the publication of the articles by General Harrison the subscription list of his magazine was enlarged many thousands. The profits to The Ladies' Home Journal were more than the publishers anticipated, and in view of this Mr. Bok asks nothing further. General Harrison placed the disposition of his book in Mr. Bok's hands. The best offer came to the editor from Scribners, and to them Mr. Bok gave the book for his distinguished contributor. General Harrison's revision of the book has just been completed, and the volume will appear in the autumn.

An eminent French critic said in a lecture recently in New York 'to distrust what we like is the first requisite of progress in art and in life' He did not mean that books that are disagreeable are the only books worth reading. But he did not mean that a book which opens up a new field of knowledge, a new outlook upon literature or life, is not at first likely to give the pleasure that comes from one which simply reflects the old familiar ideas of which we say complacently, 'How good and true it is, for I've felt it or said it myself.' A book that pats you on the head or heart all the time is apt to belittle more than a reflection of your own narrow experience and you will not learn anything from it. A book that makes one feel ignorant is as mortifying to one's pride as a superior person.—'Droch' in August Ladies Home Journal.

With five delightful stories in the August Cosmopolitan, one might judge that it was intended solely for light reading in mid-summer; but a second glance shows that it contains as much of serious interest. The second paper by the special commissioner sent by the Cosmopolitan to India tells a tale, the like of which has never appeared in any periodical. We have in historical second-hand accounts of great families, but they lack that startling distinctness which comes from beholding at first hand the sights described. Twenty millions of people slowly starving to death, many of them in sight of the railway! No American can form any idea of the state of affairs now existing in India. Mr. Hawthorne has gone interior and stood amongst the dead and dying. It is the first time we have had American investigation of the condition of affairs in India. The report will open the eyes not only of the civilized world but of the English parliament and of the Queen herself, to the necessity of extraordinary action in behalf of these unfortunate millions. A charmingly illustrated and a charmingly written article on 'Japan's Stage and Greatest Actor' by Robert P. Porter; the second part of La Guilleme's 'New Remedy of the Rubaiyat'; a sketch of the wonderful career of Geoffrey De Rouillon, and a new poem by Bret Harbo are also a part of the contents of this August Cosmopolitan.

John Griffin of Zanesville, O., says: 'I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, cured my piles.' For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Harris Bros. It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, fetid sores and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and

Of 4,080 criminals convicted in Canada last year, only thirty did not use intoxicants. After all, fireworks one day in the year do not do as much damage as firewater does the rest of the time.—Chicago Times Herald.

At a dog show in Los Angeles the sign, 'No smoking; it will hurt the dogs,' was hung on the wall. Are dogs better than boys or men? When Victoria was crowned most English-speaking people had liquors on their sideboards, and used them freely, the abstainer was often put on the defensive, and sometimes flatly accused of gross discourtesy, and often found his protest opposed to his views, either openly or covertly; almost all the colleges had liquors at the commencement and other banquets, and to propose a wedding feast without wine would have seemed most unreasonably. Deploable as the situation still is, it is vastly better than it was then, when statesmen were often little better than common drunkards, and great lawyers were often public peacocks.—The Christian Advocate.

We feel pretty proud of our Mercy department here in Oregon, and of our state superintendent Mrs. Rounds. Three states only that have distributed more pages than we have viz 22,000. We have the most pledged members 5,314. Oregon heads the list in number of public addresses. She is one of the fourteen that has tried securing the cooperation of teachers and school superintendents, both Sunday and week-day. We are happy here to have the aid of the American Humane society. The prizes offered to our young people in the public schools help to emphasize the work of Mrs. Rounds.

This is the Oregon game law: Game and fish can be killed only during the following season: Grouse, Mongolian, pheasants, and quail, September 1st to December 1st. Prairie chickens, July 1st to October 1st. Wild ducks and water fowls, September 1st to March 15. Deer, mountain sheep etc., August 1st to December 1st. Killing for hides or parts of carcasses only is prohibited. Killing spotted fawn is prohibited. East of the Cascades it is unlawful to kill at any time Chinese pheasants quail or Bob White quail. Trout April 1st to November 1st. Salmon, December 15th to November 1st. Explosives to kill fish nets, seine obstructions to free passage of fish, etc., prohibited.

PRIZES FOR BRIGHT PEOPLE. SORR-YIL-SAYID-TUBTUPRE-LOTEVI-LIDDEFAP.

The above letters, if properly arranged, will spell the names of six well known flowers. Can you solve the puzzle? If you do you can win a prize. For the latest and best arranged correct answer, according to our judgment, of the above problem, we will give a gold-filied, hunting case, American watch; to the next best, a Diamond ring. We give many other valuable prizes in this contest. A few of them are as follows: Silver-plated Water Pitchers, Baked Dishes, Nut Bowls, Butter and Cheese Dishes, cut glass, silver mounted Cracker Jars, and Branded Mantle Clock, etc. in the regular order of merit. Write out the words plainly and neatly, and see if you cannot win a prize. Be sure to give your full name and correct address, and enclose a two-cent stamp with your answer and we will notify you promptly whether you have been successful or not. As the object of these prizes is to call attention to and advertise our 20-page monthly family magazine and story paper, those who win prizes will be required to send us five yearly subscribers. Try it; see you are one of the 'Bright People.' If you are you may get a watch. We will also pay $10 cash for the best problem submitted for future use in our columns. Send to-day. Address, CHICAGO HOUSEHOLD GUEST, Premium Dept., Journal Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

We would request those who have promised to bring us wood, to please do so at their earliest convenience.

Elder Wm. Tennon

OF BUFKIN, IND.

Tells of the Great Benefits Derived From Dr. Miller's Heart Cure.

HEART DISEASE of long standing is not easily cured, but in a remarkable case Elder Wm. Tennon writes that it was afflicted for thirty-five years with heart disease, in fact, troubled with it nearly all his life; I think it hereditary as my father was afflicted with it. I have suffered great distress, my heart palpitated to such an extent as to shake my whole body. So distressing was it I could only with great difficulty compose myself to sleep. About two years ago I began taking Dr. Miller's Heart Cure. The first bottle gave me no perceptible benefit, but after taking the third I began to feel much relief and I continued for some months. I have good reason to believe the cure is permanent. Dr. Miller's Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle sent free or money refunded. Book on Heart and Nervous System free to all applicants. DR. MILLER'S MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind. Builders hardware at Jones &

A REMARKABLE CURE OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA - In 1862, when I served my country as a private in company A, 167th Pennsylvania volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines, several prominent doctors without permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Allentown, Pa. Sold by R. L. Harris.
