DAYTON HERALD.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 1898.

All quiet in Havana is the latest.

President Dole, of Hawaii, is now a guest of the United States.

It is thought that Gladstone the aged and honored English statesman, who is now at Cannes, will not live to see England again.

There is great bustle among the British warships at Esquimalt. It is probable that the whole British fleet now on the Pacific coast will be hurried to China.

The rate war between the railroad and steamships to and from Portland and San Francisco, is now ended. The rates by steamship from the 25th, will be $12 cabin and $8 steerage. Heretofore the rate has been, cabin $5, steerage $2.50.

The Annual Report of the State Grain Inspector, Geo. P. Wright for the State of Washington, for 1896-7, has been received. It gives much information regarding the grain crop of that state—the yield, quality, value, statistical tables showing in detail the business and finances for the year, grades adopted by the state grain commission in September, 1896, and rules governing the department, etc. Rules regulating inspection and their offenses are also given.

The article on Arthur Henry Hallam, by Mr Gladstone, in the New Year's number of the Companion, is one of the most fascinating literary papers ever written by the great English statesman. It carries one back to a past full of charm. The remainder of this number abounds in interest. There is the beginning of a new serial story by C. A. Stephens, a good story of a reporter's interview with the late Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil, several other short stories of exceptional merit, and the usual rare selection of miscellany.

Dr. Littlefield has returned to Portland from Skagway. He was compelled to do so on account of ill health. The Doctor says that it is no place for a man to go without money, and laborers stand a poor show to get employment. He says the town now contains about 3000 inhabitants, and about 200 is added to the population on the arrival of steamers every other day. There are some very good buildings in the city, he says, a new theatre has just been completed—200,30 feet—and modern in every respect. The time occupied in building was two weeks. Work is done by candlelight the same as by daylight, and buildings go up in a night. A great drawback to Skagway and Dyea has been the difficulty in getting building material. There was when he left, 2,000,000 feet of lumber on the way there.

NOTE

For God, and Home, and Native Land

It is calculated that 33 per cent of the cigars in London are not made of tobacco at all.

It takes 2,000,000 [illegible] generation for raw material for the saloons.

Hal. Waller, aged 16, of Carthage, Ill., has become insane from the cigarette smoking.

The governor of Canterbury goal, England, who has had acquaintance in his official capacity with 30,000 prisoners, says he has never met with a prisoner who was a teetotaler.

Morgan county, West Va., teachers' institute passed the following resolution at a late meeting: "Resolved, That as a body of teachers we condemn the use of alcohol and tobacco by the teacher, and we also condemn the habit of those male teachers who sit in the school room with their hair parted in the middle and their pants in their boot tops."

The ladies who were elected last fall at Jamestown, Kansas, to fill all the offices of the town, from mayor down, have had to use violence to fulfil their pledges. They promised that if they were elected they would rid the town of saloons and gambling houses. After a legal fight for two months, they had to confess themselves beaten on that line. One saloon—saloon could not be closed. The women armed themselves with hatchets and demolished the building. The fixtures and furniture were chopped to pieces, and the beer and liquors emptied into the gutter. An official notice was posted on the ruins of the building, threatening similar vengeance on any attempt to run another saloon in the town.—Christian Herald.

THE FASHIONS OF THE HOME JOURNAL.—The excellent stories, for which the Home is noted, will be continued, the fashion and fancy work department will be kept up to a high standard. Kate Upson [illegible] will continue her bright "Mothers' Talks," and every one of the numerous departments will be improved and made brighter.

What will no doubt prove the most practical and best illustrated magazine article on the Klondike gold region that has yet been published is announced to appear in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for February. It is written by Henry Clay Colver, a well known resident of Seattle, and treats the subject in a simple, straightforward manner. After describing the various experiences that have come from Seattle to Dawson City, the author gives some valuable and in[illegible]
