Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Lincoln county, whose home is within a few miles of Toledo, were here this week visiting at Spencer Baxter's. Mrs. Brown is a daughter of Mr. Baxter.

Captain Galbreath of the government snag boat, has a force of men at work building a wingdam at Simons' bar, about midway between Lincoln and Wheatland. This bar has been a very troublesome one to the boats during the low water.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Macy have moved to Coquille, Southern Oregon, where Mr. Macy will accept a position in the drug store of his brother-in-law, Mr. Moore. Mr. Macy has rented his place to Wm. E. Foster.

J. P. Dorsey has sold his place on the island just below Wheatland to Andrew Hewitt. There is 110 acres of land, with a fine peach orchard. The price paid was $2000 cash. Mr. Dorsey has not decided just where he will locate. He will probably rent the vacant house on his father's place, 3 miles from here, and live there this winter.

The Modoc on her trip down on Tuesday had over 100 tons of freight aboard. She glided along down over the bars, by the guidance of Capt. Gordon, with ease. The greater part of the cargo was flour from the large mills—a small portion of a shipment of flour to Hong Kong, China. The vessel which is to carry the flour is now being loaded with all haste at Portland.

The champion squashes raised in this section, are those grown by John Moore, on the Palmer place. He has had them this year to weigh 160 pounds. One he brought to this office this week for exhibition, weighs 135 pounds. This would make a number of pies. Off less than half acre Mr. Moore took over 14 wagon loads of squash, and sold 5 loads which realized him $25. Can any one beat this? If so let us hear from them.

D. J. Fry, a prominent druggist of Salem was arrested by U.S. marshal for alleged violation revenue law. It was claimed that he had sold medicines without attaching revenue stamp as required by law. He was released on giving the required bonds—$500. Mr. Fry claims that he did not violate the law, and gives reasons why had not. He says the revenue collector did not furnish him stamps when requested by him; he not having them.

The blank excuses which are filled in by teachers ready for parents signatures to be attached, that are now used in the schools here, prove satisfactory. The idea is original with Prof. Duncan, who got up the form. Teachers desirous of using them can get them on reasonable terms by the thousand, or in smaller lots by sending order to this office. Teachers, it would be well for you to give this your early attention.

R. JACOBSON & CO.,

The Leaders in Dry Goods, Clothing, Millinery, Boots, Shoes, Furnishings Goods. Fine Wraps, Carpets, Linoleums, Window Shades.

McMinnville, Oregon, September 10th, 1898.

To Our Patrons, Friends and the People in General: We are constantly adding new and attractive lines to all departments. We are cognizant of the fact that many of our customers cannot realize the large assortment of goods carried by us by a visit to our establishment. We cordially invite you to call and see us. Our force of accommodating clerks are prepared to give you the best of Attention.

It has long been our ambition to have a stock so complete, so tastefully arranged and marked down to such reasonable prices that our patrons could see no necessity to send to any outside city for any article. We know we have attained this result, as we have laid in a stock of goods such as has never been approximated in Yamhill county, and is equalled by but few stocks in Oregon. The following lines of goods are carried by us: Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Millinery, Furnishings Goods, Trunks and Valises; fine line of Capes and Jackets, ready-made Skirts and Suits. We have just added a large assortment of Carpets, Linoleums and Window Shades, a fine line of Suitings just received for our Tailoring Department, and we guarantee a perfect fit.

All the goods kept by us are purchased in large quantities direct from manufacturers, and much of our clothing is made up in our own factory, and we are thus in a position to supply them to you at Eastern prices.

We are grateful for your past patronage and respectfully ask that you take advantage of our increased efforts to please and to place the very best bargains within easy reach.

Respectfully Yours,
R. JACOBSON & CO.
McMinnville, Or.

The O. R. & N. steamer Modoc has taken the place of the Gipsy on the upper Willamette river run to Salem. Since being repaired the Modoc has been giving good satisfaction, and is classed among the best boats. The officers in charge at present, are: Captain Gordon, S. Hadlock mate; W. Smith, purser; J. Elwood, chief engineer; E. Cooper, steward. Each one does his part to make passengers enjoy themselves while on board.

J. Gillanders who has been visiting his family at their farm home, went up to Salem on the Pomona, Saturday, on his return to the Spaulding logging camp on the Santiam river, near Jefferson. He had to lay over night in Salem, the boat not arriving there in time for him to take the train.

J. W. Coffin holds down a position on the Modoc, and is considered a good all round hand on the boat, ready to cheerfully fill any position assigned him. On the run down Tuesday, Mate Hadlock being sick 'Wilbur' filled the position satisfactorily.
