DAYTON HERALD.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1899.

Let there be no appropriations made by the legislature for state fairs. Let those who want the fairs pay for them and not the state.

A bill will be introduced at this session of the legislature, to consolidate the city of Portland and Multnomah county The bill be pushed by Mayor Mason of Portland.

Normal schools are of no special benefit to the general public. Why should the state be made to pay for them? The legislature should not make an appropriation for their support.

Oregon now has a new governor. Governor Geer, who was elected at the last state election, was inaugurated on Tuesday last, and is now conducting the affairs of state It is hoped that he may guide them aright and to the welfare of the state and people thereof The inaugural ceremonies were witnessed by a great crowd of people.

The McMinnville Grange & Farmers Co is engaged in invoicing this week. The stockholders will hold their annual meeting on the 14th inst It is rumored that the business of this house demands more room, and the question of building larger in the near future may come up for consideration at this meeting.—Yamhill Reporter.

Captain Bell of the O the O. R. & N. steamer Ruth had to 'lay off,' on account of having grippe. On the trip up to Corvallis Saturday and down Monday, Clyde Raabe pilot was at the wheel most of the time. Clyde understands his business and does not mind a little extra work occasionally.

A temporary writ of injunction was granted by R P. Roise, circuit judge, in the Marion county court, against the county clerk and county treasurer, enjoining the payment of a warrant for $180 51 drawn in favor of Geo. G. Bingham, in payment of his services as tax collector for the month of December. The sheriff claims that he was at all times ready and willing to perform his duty under the law, and to collect said delinquent taxes without any assistance from any attorney.

The San Francisco Bulletin is one of the oldest papers published on the coast. It is now in its 44th year of existence. Although getting along in age it is vigorous, and an up to date newspaper. Its editorials on the varied topics of the day are able and well written. The Sunday editions of the Bulletin are immense and give all the news and miscellaneous matter that one could wish to read and digest during the next week. When subscribing for a metropolitan paper don't forget the Bulletin

The cigarette law which was passed by the legislature of Tennessee in 1897, has been declared constitutional by the supreme court. This court says cigarettes are not legitimate articles of commerce, because they are noxious and dileterious to health, and do not, therefore, come under the federal provision relative to commerce It declares further, that the state has a right to prohibit their importation and sale Also that the conventional cigarette package is not an original package. This last is a knock-out blow to the previous federal decision allowing the importation of the small packages as original packages. The sale of cigarettes has already been stopped in Tennessee.

A Famous Woman Portrait Painter—Women alone considered Elizabeth Gardner, long the pupil of Bouguereau and now his wife, is, perhaps, the greatest figure painter that America has thus far brought forth. Born in New Hampshire, she went in 1873 to Paris where some years ago her painting, 'Innocence,' won for her the gold medal of the Salon. Her style follows closely that of her husband and master She composes with skill, models with delicacy, and colors with an even, agreeable but not brilliant palette. Her young children are always lovely and appeal straight to every mother's heart.—From 'America's Women Painter,' in Demorests Magazine for January.

The New Year's editon of the Oregon Statesman, published at Salem, is an exceptionally fine paper. It is neatly printed on fine paper. The illustrations, of which there is a large number, of Salem and vicinity, also other parts of the state, and of prominent citizens and buildings, are first class. The paper speaks well for the enterprise and public spirit of the publishers of the Statesman, and also that of the Capital City of Oregon. It is a capital number to send to friends in other states. The Good Templar published in McMinnville, has the following: In the past year the clamors of the rapacious liquor traffic have constrained the opening of the state of Iowa, to the distillery and brewery. Governor Larrabee, in 1889, after four years of faithful enforcement of the prohibitory law, was able to report more than half the jails empty, convicts, in the state prison reduced by 100, court expenses greatly curtailed, and the state out of debt. But now, after three years of license, the jails and penitentiaries are overflowing, taxes increased, the state heavily in debt and the treasury empty.

La Grippe Successfully Treated—'I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year,' says Mr. Jas. A. Jones publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. 'In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first I was able to attend to business about two days before getting down.'
