"Spring Unlocks The Flowers"

To Paint the Laughing Soil.
And not even Nature would allow the flowers to grow and blossom to perfection without good soil. Now Nature and people are much alike; the former must have sunshine, latter must have pure blood in order to have perfect health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood troubles of all sorts. It is to the human system what sunshine is to nature—the destroyer of disease germs. It never disappoints.

Poor Blood.—The doctor said there were not seven drops of good blood in my body. Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and made me strong and well.—Susie E. Brown, 19 Astor Hill, Lynn, Mass.

Dyspepsia, etc.—A complication of troubles, dyspepsia, chronic catarrh and inflammation of the stomach, rheumatism, etc., made me miserable. Had no appetite until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which made me like magic. I am thoroughly cured.—N. B. Seelye, 1874 W. 14th Ave., Denver, Colo.

Rheumatism.—My husband was obliged to give up work on account of rheumatism. No remedy helped until he used Hood's Sarsaparilla, which permanently cured him. It cured my daughter of catarrh. I give it to the children with good results.—Mrs. J. S. McMath, Stamford, Ct.

A FILIPINO CREW.

Sailors on the Monmouthshire, Recently Arrived in Portland, Are Native of the Island of Luzon.

Something of interest at this particular time is the fact that the sailors and coal passers on the Monmouthshire, which has recently arrived in Portland, Or., are Filipinos. On shipboard they are known as Manila men, and regarded as good sailors as ever went before a mast. They are not unlike the Mongolians, and in fact bear so much resemblance to them that one not otherwise informed would put them down for senseless sons of the Flowery Kingdom or subjects of the Island Empire. Some of them have been with the steamer for a long time, and understand English fairly well, besides being well versed in Spanish. They are fully cognizant of the fact that war is now raging between their countrymen and the United States, and believe Aguinaldo "undoubtedly a good man," to use the exact words of one of them. Another said it was no telling where the fight will end or who will get the upper hand. In speaking of the trouble, they are a little conservative, which is not at all surprising, considering the fact that they are strangers in a strange land and under particularly strange circumstances. Although much like the Mongolians in appearance, the two people differ much in habits and general make-up. Ruled by a firm hand, yet not too severe, the Filipinos prove good workmen, always willing to perform their share of the duties assigned them, and in case of trouble they can always be relied upon to uphold the side of their superior. This First Officer Kennedy has learned through years of experience.

For Kotschub Sound.
The first vessel to leave for points north of St. Michaels this year will be the bark Alaska. She will sail from San Francisco for Golovin bay, Fort Clarence and Kotschub sound about May 1, and on her return trip will probably bring the first authentic news from those points. Over 800 gold miners wintered on the rivers emptying into Kotschub sound, but since the return of the Alaska last year not a word has been heard from them. They were well supplied with provisions and the only anxiety regarding them is in regard to their success or failure in locating deposits of gold.

Chief Moses Is Dead.
Indian Agent Anderson reports that Moses, head chief of the 2,000 Indians on the Colville reservation, died of Bright's disease, at his place near the Nespelem agency. He is nearly 80 years of age, and comes of fighting stock. His father was killed in an Indian war in Montana, and in the same war Moses was wounded. He remained at peace during the New Person war, though tempted by Joseph to take to the warpath. He is wealthy in land and stock, and for several years has been drawing an annuity of $1,000 from the government.

Beef Market on the Yukon.
The great best trust which sold meat at Dawson for $1.50 per pound last year is now almost forgotten and prices are about as low as they are in the states. The poorest beef sells at 15 cents and the best at 25 cents per pound to the quarter. One thing that has forced down the prices is the order that all beef that is not kept in refrigerators by May 1 will be condemned and must be thrown away. There are no refrigerators at Dawson, and none in course of construction, so that the prices will probably go still lower.

The Monmouthshire's Passengers.
Japanese immigration to the United States seems to be assuming larger proportions with the arrival of each steamer. The Fau Sang, which was in Portland a few days ago, brought about half a hundred men from the bound for points in California, and now the Monmouthshire comes in with a total of 150 in less than a month. Only two of the late arrivals were women, and the majority of the men come here to go into the rural districts.

Agriculture in Alaska.
Professor Georgeson, of the agricultural department, accompanied by G. H. Robinson and H. E. Neilson, is on his way to Alaska, where he will test the agricultural possibilities of that section. Stations will be established at Sitka, Kodiak and Kenai, and grains, grasses and vegetables will be planted. Professor Georgeson is convinced from the results of his experiments last year that the climate and soil of Alaska are very favorable for agriculture.

Iron Works Sold.
Receiver Merrill of the Columbia iron works of Astoria, Or., has made a sale of the property to Claude B. Hanthorn, A. Welch and S. T. Harrison, who will continue the business of the company. There were several bidders, including Cawston & Co., of Portland.

To Extend Its Track.
George L. Colwell, of Ilwaco, says it is a settled fact that the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation Company will extend its track to a point above Chinook, where deep water can be secured and better steamer connections made with Portland than are now possible.

Oregon Supplies the Beef.
The lack of rains in California has made meat so scarce and high-priced that beef is now selling at 8 cents a pound, as is also pork selling at a higher price. Much of the supply for Southern California is now received from the ranches of Oregon. Hay is very short and grain has advanced to $24 per ton. Considerable Kansas and other hay has been shipped in as well as many importations from Oregon and Washington by sailing vessels.

The Body Found.
The body of Ed Coleson, who was drowned in the Sultan river on February 14, 1898, has been found by M. F. Cole, embedded in a sandbar on the north bank of the Skykomish river, opposite the mouth of Elwell creek, about two miles west of Everett.

See for Their Pay.
Moran Bros., of Seattle, have brought suit against the Northern American Transportation & Trading Company to recover the sum of $27,643 balance due on the construction of Yukon river steamers.

Lifelong Service.

Considerable interest has been manifested in Oregon and Washington as regards the future operations of the lifesaving service, says a Washington dispatch. Many residents of both states, learning that a new lighthouse district on the North Pacific was contemplated, have written to the treasury department seeking appointments under the new district. As yet merely in fact, such a district is as yet merely a matter of conjecture, having been suggested several times and recommended to congress. If a new district is created, it is the opinion of the lighthouse board that it will be by a provision of the next sundry civil bill, which, at the earliest cannot pass before June or July, 1900.

Powder Car Blows Up.
A powder car, belonging to a Great Northern freight train, blew up at Everett, Wash., killing one tramp and wounding two others who were riding in an adjoining car. In addition to the powder car, two cars, containing mixed freight, were burned. The injured men gave their names as Sylvester Fagan and Charles Floboite. The name of the dead man was unknown to them. It is thought that the car in which the tramps were riding was set on fire by them and the heat exploded the powder car.

German Colonists.
Henry C. Nichol, of Hamburg, Germany, has been offered in Portland, Ore., as Oregon as a representative of a colony of 300 or 400 persons who want to come to America. He says it will take a tract of land containing at least 10,000 acres. The colony will risk Mr. Nichol's judgment, and come as soon as he notifies the members of having what he wants in the way of land.

HIS ARMY BROKEN.

Aguinaldo's Men Scattered and His Power Gone.

Manila, April 8.—Aguinaldo's army is broken. There are many deserters, and that means that his power is forever gone. The rebels will now become bandits, fighting guerrilla war far from the mountains.

The American troops are in fine spirits, in spite of the terrible heat. They are resting today at Malolos, previous to pressing forward.

The details of the capture of the town are interesting. The Americans camped all night, and a council of war was held by the commanding officers. It was the general belief that the enemy was 20,000 strong, but the resistance was nominal, and the losses light. Colonel Fugate, of the Kansas volunteers, dashed up to the barricade in the principal thoroughfare with his men, and he yelled, "Give 'em hell." He was the first to enter the city. After the Kansas men came the Montana regiment. These troops rescued Chinamen about to be murdered by the rebels, and put out fires set by the Filipinos.

The city is desolate today, but over it floats Old Glory, and in its streets are tired but happy American soldiers. Aguinaldo's palace was burned, and his government is a wreck. His plan is to burn everything as he flies. Prisoners say that Malolos citizens begged the insurgents to surrender to the Americans, but these were shot by Aguinaldo's orders.

All the prisoners say that misrepresentations were made to them about the Americans. Papers and orders found in Malolos show that the insurgents had been told that Otis, Hale and the others were killed, and the United States troops terribly demoralized.

Twenty-two Spaniards, picked up by the army transport Rosacon, off San Fabian, after escape from the rebels, say the natives are suffering from scarcity of food, and fear the American warships will shell the coast towns.

The Americans hope to force a decisive battle at Calumpit or at a point not further than that from Malolos. The American commissioners are delaying their proclamation till the rebels can be cornered and whipped.

Chinese residents of Malolos were panic-stricken, but were quieted by the Americans. They say the main army of the rebels retreated to Calumpit, Wednesday, leaving only enough behind to make a show of resistance.

BOLD STREET ROBBERY.

Sack Containing $2,500 Stolen From an Express Messenger.

San Francisco, April 3.—One of the boldest and most daring robberies in the annals of San Francisco was committed yesterday in front of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express office, on Second street, when a sack containing $2,500 in gold coin was stolen from the seat of an express wagon belonging to Jos. N. E. Waters, while the latter was engaged in conversation with a stranger.

Waters was carrying the coin from the Anglo-California bank to the express office for shipment to Morris Bros., at Chinco, Cal. The person who accosted Waters asked him the location of the Grand hotel. Waters was tying his horse at the time, but gave the desired information. On turning again to his wagon, he saw that the money had been taken. Waters has been engaged in carrying the coin of the Anglo-California and other large banking concerns for more than 30 years, and no suspicion at attaches to him.

THE KINGSTON FIGHT.

Two American Sailors and Eight Natives Were Killed.

New York, April 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Kingston, Jamaica, says: During the fight between American sailors and native boatmen on Tuesday, at the wharf, the casualties were: Indians—Two killed (O. Grady and another) and several wounded.

Texas—James Darcy, oiler, concussion of the brain, and W. E. McMahon, fractured knee, are going North on the Supply.

Three men from the Texas are in the hospital. One named Green, a water tender, may get out of his wounds; twenty-five other sailors were injured, including four on the Supply. That ship's whaleboat crew, being stoned by natives, were forced overboard to escape death.

Eight natives are reported killed. The Newark arrived this morning.

Commission Will Be Named.
Washington, April 3.—A modus vivendi for the settlement of the Samoan troubles has been proposed and is now under favorable consideration by the three governments concerned. It contemplates the creation of a joint high commission consisting of one member of each country, to pass upon the recent clash of authority and resulting disorder.

The proposition, it is understood, was put forward by Germany, and is the second one submitted for the settlement of the entire question.

Chief Moses Dead.
Seattle, April 3.—A Post Intelligence special from Creston, Wash., says Chief Moses, the well-known Indian, died at his home on the Colville reservation last Saturday.

Colonel Anderson Promoted.
Washington, April 3.—Colonel Thomas M. Anderson has been appointed brigadier-general in the regular army to succeed Edwin V. Sumner, retired.

The Constantinople correspondent of the London Standard says: News has been received from Smyrna that 6,000 Cretan Muslemian refugees, who were in desperate lack of work and food, invaded and pillaged the Greek and Turkish quarters of the city.

The modus vivendi to be recognized on the Alaska boundary, as proposed by the United States, has been referred to the Canadian authorities, as well as to the British foreign office, and until word comes from both quarters it will not be known whether the modus vivendi is to be established. The impression prevails, however, that as soon as Canada has expressed approval, the British foreign office will give official assent.

It is reported that Aguinaldo has redoubled his opposition to the release of the Spanish prisoners now in the hands of the insurgents.

STRONG STATEMENTS.

Three Women Relieved of Female Troubles by Mrs. Pinkham.

From Mrs. A. W. SMITH, 59 Summer St., Bridgeport, Me.:
"For several years I suffered with various diseases peculiar to my sex. I was troubled with a burning sensation across the small of my back, that all-gone feeling, was despondent, fretful and discouraged; the least exertion tired me. I tried several doctors but received little benefit. At last I decided to give your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The effect of the first bottle was magical. Those symptoms of weakness that I was afflicted with, vanished like vapor before the sun. I cannot speak too highly of your valuable remedy. It is truly a boon to women."

From Mrs. MELBA PHILLIPS, Lexington, Ind., to Mrs. Pinkham:
"Before I began taking your medicine I had suffered for two years with that terrible feeling, headache, backache, nervousness, and a run-down condition of the system. I could not walk across the room. I have taken four bottles of your Vegetable Compound, one box of Liver Pills and used one package of Sanative Wash, and now feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work."

From Mrs. MOLLIE E. HERRICK, Powell Station, Tenn.:
"For three years I suffered with such a weakness of the back, I could not perform my household duties. I also had falling of the womb, terrible bearing-down pains and headache. I have taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and feel like a new woman. I recommend your medicine to every woman I know."

Turned Down.
"I come to ask you for your daughter," said the young man who has nothing but what he expects to earn, "but I can't express myself."

"Express yourself?" sneered the plutocratic parent. "You don't even need to go by freight. Walking is an expeditious enough in this case. Don't forget your hat."—Detroit Free Press.

AN EXCELLENT COMBINATION.

A Successful Enterprise That Is Based on Merit.

A few remedies which have attained to world-wide fame, as truly beneficial in effect and giving satisfaction to millions of people everywhere, are the products of the knowledge of the most eminent physicians, and presented in the form most acceptable to the human system by the skill of the world's great chemists; and one of the most successful examples is the Syrup of Figs manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Unlike a host of imitations and cheap substitutes, Syrup of Figs is permanently beneficial in its effects, and therefore lives and promotes good health, while inferior preparations are being cast aside and forgotten. In olden times if a remedy gave temporary relief to individuals here and there, it was thought good; but now-a-days a laxative remedy must give satisfaction to all. If you have never used Syrup of Figs, give it a trial, and you will be pleased with it, and will recommend it to your friends or to any who suffer from constipation, or from over-eating, or from colds, headaches, biliousness, or other ills resulting from an inactive condition of the kidneys, liver and bowels.

In the process of manufacturing the pleasant family laxative made by the California Fig Syrup Co., and named Syrup of Figs, figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste; but the medicinal properties of the remedy are obtained from an excellent combination of plants known to be medicinal laxative and to act most beneficially. As the true and original remedy, named Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only a knowledge of that fact will assist in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The Company has selected for years past the leading publications of the United States through which to inform the public of the merits of its remedy, and among them this paper is included, as will be seen by reference to its advertising columns.

Weaving by Photography.

A scene memorable in the annals of the weaving industry was witnessed at the Vienna Technical Art museum recently. Herr Jan Scepanski, the famous young inventor, presented Emperor Francis Joseph with the first photograph process. The silk-woven Goblet-Ringscher. It is about two square meters in size and gives an allegorical representation of homage to the emperor. The work contains 300,000, 000 crossings, 120 silk threads filling one centimeter. Two hundred square meters of pasteboard cards would have been necessary to produce this web according to the present method, and designers would have required many years to carry out the work. Now the design is abolished, and the work was done in five hours. The emperor was struck with the marvelous plasticity and delicacy of the picture, which nobody would believe to be woven. Herr Scepanski demonstrated the process at the emperor's desire, and his majesty accepted the gift and congratulated the inventor.—London Chronicle.
