NEGROES FIRED UPON

Strikers Shoot Into Miner's Train Near Panama.

GOING TO TAKE STRIKERS' JOBS

One Woman Was Shot Through the Heart—An Italian Led the Riot.

Murphyboro, Ill., July 3.—At 9 o'clock this morning, Conductor William Ryan's train of the Johnson City branch of the Illinois Central, bearing 47 negro miners from Panama, was shot into by a crowd of miners at Lawder, in Williamson county. One negro woman was killed by a bullet through her heart. The negroes were brought by Sam T. Bush, superintendent of the St. Louis Big Muddy mines, near Carversville, to work in his mine there, where there is now a strike.

The miners, 50 in number, were armed with rifles and were hidden in the grass behind the company depot. When the train stopped the leader, an Italian, got on the platform and commanded the negroes to get out. Conductor Ryan interfered, but was stopped by a revolver in his face. The train began to move and the miners poured in withering fire. Conductor Ryan yelled to the negroes to throw themselves on the floor.

Half a mile further on the negroes were unloaded and placed under charge of guards. They were then marched to the mine.

Intense excitement prevails in the Cartersville coal field, and bloody riots are expected; as the feeling has been intense for weeks.

FIGHT IS INEVITABLE.

The Rebels Gathering to Attack San Fernando.

Manila, July 3.—A collision between the two armies at San Fernando seems inevitable soon. The insurgents are active all around the town, and can be seen working in the trenches to strengthen their position. Day and night forces are at work.

It is estimated that 3,000 men were seen marching in the road north of town yesterday morning. The Americans turned out and manned the defenses, expecting an attack. The soldiers sleep in their clothes and breakfast at 4 o'clock in the morning, so as to be ready for an assault.

The commission of three Spanish officers who entered the insurgent lines a fortnight ago to make a final attempt to arrange for the release of the Spanish prisoners have not returned. The long absence has occasioned alarm, but reports come to Manila that they were received by Aguinaldo at Tarlac and entertained hospitably. It is said that Aguinaldo gave a banquet in their honor, all the leading families of the rebel leaders of the present cabinet attending, hence the Spaniards in Manila hope that the mission of the commissioners will be successful.

EXCLUSION A BLESSING.

Americans Benefited by Having Been Kept Out of Atlin.

Seattle, July 3.—Advice from Atlin mining district are to the effect that Judge Irving, who was sent into the district by the British Columbia government to straighten out the tangle caused by the alien exclusion act, has arrived there and has already settled many disputes over locations. He has decided that the original claims, located before the passage of the exclusion act, shall stand, whether the locators are Americans or Canadians.

Russ Humber, of Victoria, a late arrival, says: "The condition of affairs in Atlin is very serious. Nearly 4,000 men are in the district doing nothing. Many have run out of provisions and money. Only a few of the claims are turning out well. I would not give over $3,000 for the best claim in the district. While I am a Canadian, I condemn, in the strongest terms, the action of the provincial government in keeping the country closed up. Americans should be thankful that the alien law kept them out."

GRAVES, RENTED IN CUBA.

When Payment Is Delinquent Remains Are Thrown Out.

Havana, July 3.—The citizens of Matanzas protest against restoring the cemetery to ecclesiastical authorities. It is asserted by those who are particularly active in their opposition that the church, though always regarding the cemetery as a leading source of income, has invariably taken advantage of the poor in connection therewith, compelling them to pay exorbitant sums when renting graves for their dead, and then, at the expiration of the term, relentlessly disintering the remains and throwing them into unconsecrated ground.

OREGON MAN'S INVENTION.

Naval Board Experiments With a New Explosive.

New York, July 3.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: Important tests with thorite, a new high explosive, are being conducted by the board of ordnance and fortifications at the Sandy Hook proving grounds. Little is known at the war department of the characteristics of the new explosive. It is the invention of Professor Tuttle, of Oregon, who asserts it is perfectly safe, and was willing some weeks ago to put a red-hot poker in a charge of thorite, declaring it could be done without causing it to explode.

It is believed to have picric acid as its base. Tests of the explosive by the inventor are said to have been very satisfactory, and it may prove to be the material the army has been seeking.

Besides thorite, the ordnance department of the army has been experimenting with jovite, emmenite and dry and wet gun cotton, paying more attention to the last named explosive than to any other. So far none of them has given the results desired before adoption for service use.

Captain William Crozier, military attaché of the American delegation to the Hague conference, was instructed several weeks ago to stop in England on his way home and ascertain if possible the ingredients of hidolite and the secret of the use used by General Kitchen's army in the Sudan with such excellent effect. It is untrue that he has been directed to contract for any quantity of the explosive.

Military officers in England have apparently been unable to secure all the information concerning the explosive the authorities would like to have. It is recalled that emmenite, discovered in and used by France, was kept a secret, but this government finally obtained information of its ingredients and has been testing it for some years at Sandy Hook.

Tests of jovite were made by the army officials several years ago and were not very successful. The navy department has tested thorite with considerable success, and if it continues to be satisfactory it may be adopted by the naval service.

Joint Pacific Coast Terminal Company.

Tacoma, Wash., July 2.—A special from New York to the Evening News today says: Negotiations which have been pending for the past 90 days for settlement of the terms for a joint terminal corporation for the Pacific coast have been practically concluded, and the plan of organization agreed upon. Tacoma will be the center of the system, which will include various ports on the navigable waters of the North Pacific coast, where the steamship lines of the Pacific will be centered.

Active work in the carrying out of the project, which includes the Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Burlington and Union Pacific systems, will be at once begun.

Another Diplomatic Crisis.

Washington, July 2.—The negotiations in London looking to the arrangement of a modus vivendi fixing the Alaskan boundary, have again nearly reached a crisis, the several conferences that have taken place recently being dimly disappointing in results.

At moments it appeared the details could be easily arranged, but it turns out that those very details cannot be agreed upon without the sacrifices of the interests of many American miners, mainly those who are driven out of the Atlin district by the severe and discriminating Canadian laws.

The Transvaal Difficulty.

London, July 2.—The Digger News, the Boer organ in London, prints a dispatch from Johannesburg announcing on reliable authority that the volksraad will be asked on Monday to confirm an arrangement made by the executive council and acceptable to the British government. MURPHY'S GREAT RIDE

Paced by Locomotive, He Did a Mile in 57 4-5 Seconds.

THE WORLD'S FASTEST TIME

Screened From the Wind by Hood on the Train—It Nearly Cost Him His Life.

New York, July 3.—Charles M. Murphy, of the Kings County Wheelmen, rode a mile on a bicycle, paced by a locomotive, in 57 4-5 seconds today. His course was a two-mile board track on a siding of the Long Island railway. Murphy followed an engine and a day-coach, the latter being provided with a hood, which acted as a wind shield for the rider. The board track was laid near Maywood, L. I., and extended from that station two miles east, and was as nearly perfect to a level as skill could make it. Fully 3,000 people saw Murphy make his daring ride.

Engineer Sam Booth had his hand on the throttle of engine 74 when the word was given to start at 5:10. The engine started at a rapid rate, and before 400 yards had been traversed, was running at a rate of more than 50 miles an hour. Murphy was keeping well within the hood. As they neared the beginning of the mile stretch, the pace was a mile a minute, and a cloud of dust obscured everything from the view of the spectators, who lined the banks on either side.

On entering this pace, which would test his speed, Murphy, in reply to a query, shouted: "I'm all right, send her along," but there was no necessity for his remarks as to speed, as the engineer was sending the big steam flyer along at top speed. The quarter was reached in 15 seconds, and the half in 29 2-5. The time for the three-quarters was 44. At the finish, two of the watches showed 57 4-5, one 57 3-5, another 58 and the fifth 57 3-4, which was held by Sheriff Creamer. The timers agreed that Murphy had covered the distance in 57 4-5 seconds.

Those on the back platform who had watched Murphy all through his wonderful ride stated that the rider's handle bars had knocked against the rubber buffer at least six times, and each time the concussion sent him back fully six feet, but Murphy always had strength enough to regain this distance.

During the last quarter of a mile, the rider covered the ground for the greater part fully a wheel's length outside of the hood, but as he passed the finish he was close up. Just then two strong men on board the train reached down and seized the rider by either arm and lifted him aboard the car in safety. Their action undoubtedly saved Murphy's life, because he was then in such a weak condition that had he been allowed to remain on the wheel he would have been unable to control it, and a serious, if not fatal, accident might have happened.

Murphy was carried to the front part of the car and laid on a cot where a physician administered to him, and in less than five minutes the cyclist was able to converse with those around him. Murphy seemed dazed at first, and said, in answer to queries as to why he fell back so many times: "I did not so that I might not come in contact with the planks which were being torn up in front of me."

Later on, however, he did not refer to this, but said: "Boys, I've felt all ways that I could do this. Now that I have done it, I am satisfied, and so are many others."

Before the train had reached Babylon Murphy had regained his normal condition.

Murphy rode a 28-inch wheel, geared to 120, 3/4-inch crank hangers, and the weight of the machine was 20 1/2 pounds.

GOVERNMENT OF SAMOA

Governor Not to Be Subject to Any of the Treaty Powers.

San Francisco, July 3.—The steamship Mariposa arrived from Australia, via Samoa and Honolulu, today, and reports everything quiet in the Samoan islands.

The commission lost no time in getting to work and had an interview with the rival kings, who agreed to surrender all arms and abandon their claims to the throne. The commission is now engaged in writing its report.

Apia is to be governed by a council and mayor. The judicial and diplomatic functions of the consuls will be greatly restricted and the supreme court and one law is recognized as sufficient for the needs of Samoa. Revenue will be raised by indirect taxation by means of increased customs duties, and the poll tax will be abolished. A governor will be appointed who will not be the subject of any treaty powers. He will be assisted by a council of three, one from each of the interested powers. This council will legislate for the Samoans and will be aided by a small body of representative Samoans. Consuls Rose and Moxe are passengers on the Mariposa.

Some of the rebels are dissatisfied with the proclamation providing for a provisional government, and have declined to give up their rifles.

It is easy to see through people who make spectacles of themselves.—Chicago Daily News.

NEGROES SOUGHT REVENGE.

Black and White Miners Have a Battle at Fredonia.

St. Louis, July 5.—A Post-Dispatch special from Carbonado, Ill., says: Union City, named from the fact that it is occupied by union miners, was the scene of a battle last night about midnight, and as a result the town is in ruins. The nonunion negroes and other men employed by Brush at its mines near Fredonia having become crazed over the killing of the woman yesterday, went to the camp, which consists of nine houses, and opened fire on them, which was at once returned.

The battle raged until the union miners ran from their homes and took refuge in a clump of timber close to the village. The nonunion men at once applied the torch to the houses, and all were burned to the ground. After the men had destroyed considerable property previously occupied by the union men, they moved on the woods, and until daylight the fusillade was kept up. No lives have so far been reported lost.

MUST ROUT REBELS.

Peace Will Follow Victory in the Philippines Says Schurman.

Manila, July 5.—Professor J. G. Schurman, of the United States advisory commission for the Philippines, returned to Manila today from a three week's trip in the southern islands. He takes an entirely hopeful view of the conditions there. The intelligent and substantial citizens desire an American protectorate. The masses are awaiting the settlement of the war in the island of Luzon before declaring themselves. They are chiefly anxious to be undisturbed. The president of the town of Santo Nicolas, in the island of Cebu, said to Mr. Schurman: "We want peace, food and prosperity. We do not wish to fight. We would be neutral."

The president of the commission thinks this declaration fairly expresses the sentiments of the people in the southern islands of the archipelago. Many of the towns there are in the hands of small bands of Tagals, and the people fear to endorse American rule until they are certain that Aguinaldo must be beaten. Let them once be convinced of this, and the allegiance of the southern islands, Mr. Schurman thinks can be secured by diplomacy.

Court of Arbitration.

The Hague, July 5.—The drafting committee on arbitration adopted this afternoon the American amendment to the code of procedure relative to a revision of the sentence of the arbitration court in certain cases. The committee dealt in the second reading with the motion of Sir Julian Pauncefote, head of the British delegation, to change the word "tribunal" to "court," which was adopted. So the official name is "permanent court of arbitration." The committee also passed the second reading of the first articles of Sir Julian Pauncefote's motion.
