CAPTURE OF PILAR

Real Filipino Leader Taken by Americans.

HE WAS CAUGHT NEAR MANILA

Brave Stand of 31 Americans Against 600 Insurgents at Catubig.

Manila, June 11.—General Pio del Pilar, the Filipino leader, has been captured near Manila.

Brave Stand at Catubig.

Washington, June 11.—Perhaps the most thrilling and picturesque incident of the entire Philippine war occurred at Catubig, on the island of Samar, where, April 15 last, a party of 31 enlisted men of company K, Forty-third volunteers, held at bay a force of some 600 insurgents during four days of fierce fighting, reinforcements arriving just in the nick of time. The war department has received reports from Captain H. M. Day, of the Forty-third volunteer infantry, and First Lieutenant J. T. Sweeney, of that regiment, who commanded the rescue party, giving all the details of the attack, siege and the relief.

According to the reports the attack on the garrison at Catubig began without warning, Sunday morning, April 15. From the hills on all sides, from every point of vantage in the town and from a deserted church directly adjoining came a rifle and cannon fire of terrible intensity. Tuesday morning, the barracks of the garrison were thrown into the barracks from the insurgents in the church and soon the soldiers' refuge was on fire. All efforts to subdue the fire failed, and, finally, the little band, made a dash for the river bank. Some were killed before they reached the opposite shore, and when a boat in which it was intended to make the opposite shore, and when a trench was finally dug with bayonets, only 16 of the last were left in it. Here, for two more days, Corporal Carson, handling his men with the judgment of a veteran, held out under a terrible fire until the arrival of Lieutenant Sweeney's command, which had been ordered to supplement the garrison at Catubig, and which was on its way up the river on the steamer Lao Ang. Not until within a quarter of a mile of Catubig, says Lieutenant Sweeney, in his report, did they hear the noise of the engagement. Then he realized that he and his men were sorely needed and he ordered the captain of the steamer to run his boat at top speed. The Lao Ang steamed up to Catubig under a rain of Mauer bullets from both shores. The small boats were lowered, a landing effected, and the rescuers fought their way through the open to their comrades in the trenches, buried the dead within reach, brought back to the boat the besieged party, numbering now only 13 men, and then steamed down the river.

It is impossible for white men to go into the interior successfully during the rainy season."

OOM PAUL TALKS.

Correspondent Found Him in a Car at Mahadodorp.

London, June 11.—The executive office of the Transvaal government are in a railway car, which is shunted on a switch at Mahadodorp. President Kruger caused the interior of the coach to be reconstructed some time ago, with a view to contingencies that have now arrived. A correspondent of the Daily Express, who went from Lourenco Marques to see President Kruger, was received yesterday. The president sat smoking a long pipe. He looked worried, but his bearing itself was quiet and determined. He did not make the least objection to being interviewed. The correspondent was equipped for the interview by cables from London.

"Yes," said President Kruger, "it is quite true that the British have occupied Pretoria. This, however, does not mean that the war is over. The British will never surrender so long as 500 armed men remain in the country. I feel encouraged by the fine work Steyn and Dewet are doing in the Free State."

The correspondent suggested that the war was over, inasmuch as the capital had been taken.

"The capital," exclaimed President Kruger, with energy, "what is a capital? It does not consist of any particular collection of bricks and mortar. The capital of the republic, the seat of the government, is here in this car. There is no magic about any special site. Our country is invaded, it is true, but it is not conquered. The government is still effective."

The interest in the reason why he left Pretoria, President Kruger said: "I was not foolish enough to be taken prisoner. I provided this means of locomotion precisely for the same reason as our burghers supply themselves with horses when they take the field. It is necessary that I should be able to move quickly from place to place. That is all. Bye and bye this car will take me back to Pretoria. For the present, it enables me to keep away from Pretoria, where I could be of no service and where I should only play into the hands of the enemy."

RUSSIA WANTS MORE MONEY

In Need of More Cash to Complete the Trans-Caucasian Line.

New York, June 11.—The advice from London that M. Rothstein, a well-known financier of St. Petersburg, would soon arrive in this country, with a view to looking over the situation here as an agent of his government and to see whether or not a large Russian loan could be floated in the United States, are said by leading foreign bankers in this city to be accurate. Whether or not M. Rothstein shall ultimately be successful in his mission, however, it is not believed by prominent local financiers that he will be able to place a loan of any magnitude in the United States for the next few months, until the presidential campaign shall be ended.

It may be remembered that in February of this year, the Russian imperial government negotiated a loan of $15,000,000 with a syndicate of New York banks, trust companies and insurance companies. In exchange for their money the syndicate received four per cent bonds, guaranteed principal agents in 1 have been formed, coming here to get money for the Russian trans-Caucasian railway. This is one of the longest roads in the world and is not completed by any means. Money is needed. M. Rothstein is coming from London here, and is going to Washington to see the Russian minister, through whom all negotiations are to be made."

The interest in the reason why he left Pretoria, President Kruger said: "I was not foolish enough to be taken prisoner. I provided this means of locomotion precisely for the same reason as our burghers supply themselves with horses when they take the field. It is necessary that I should be able to move quickly from place to place. That is all. Bye and bye this car will take me back to Pretoria. For the present, it enables me to keep away from Pretoria, where I could be of no service and where I should only play into the hands of the enemy."

A BLOODY SUNDAY.

Half a Dozen St. Louis Strikers Shot Down.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS DID SHOOTING

Several Outbreaks in Various Parts of the City—Militia Is Being Prepared for Action

St. Louis, June 12.—The day just ended has been one of the most eventful and bloody since the great strike on a month ago. There were numerous encounters between strikers and other individuals and the constituted authorities, resulting in four deaths and the wounding of five or more persons, mostly strikers. The dead are: C. Edward Thomas, striking conductor on the Chouteau avenue line, shot in breast by deputy sheriff; died on the way to hospital.

George Rins, striking motorman on Delmar avenue line, shot in abdomen by deputy sheriff; died at city hospital.

Fred Boehm, adult citizen, shot and instantly killed while standing in his front yard by deputy sheriff.

Ed Burkhardt, striking conductor on Delmar avenue line; shot in head; may die.

The day was quiet until this afternoon, when the police were taken off a number of street lines for the purpose of giving them a rest and to test the ability of the Transit Company to operate without friction.

The most serious trouble broke out between 6 and 7 o'clock in front of the six-story building on Washington avenue, between Broadway and Sixth streets, occupied by the sheriff's posse consisting as a barracks and headquarters. Several hundred strikers had gone to East St. Louis earlier in the day to attend a picnic given for their benefit, and toward evening began returning home. The trouble was precipitated when 150 strikers in uniform and headed by a drum corps, came west on Washington avenue. In their caps, some of them had carved bearing these words: "Union or nothing; liberty or death."

Just as they were passing the barracks, a car of the Park avenue division was going west. A number of the men broke from the line and rushed for the car which was without the usual police guard. A brick was thrown through the car window and a shot was fired by somebody not known.

At the first intimation of trouble the sheriff's posse swarmed from the building and surrounded the crowd of strikers, calling on them to disperse. Other shots were fired. Then several deputies turned loose their repeating shotguns, loaded with buckshot. As far as can be learned only four men in the strikers' ranks were hit. Not a deputy was wounded.

Under the command of Colonel Cavender, the deputies arrested 30 of the strikers and took them into the barracks, where they were searched. These revolvers and a number of pocket knives were secured, and the prisoners were taken to the four courts, where they were looked up pending an investigation. The remainder of the strikers fled, followed by a squad of mounted police that had been summoned. They dispersed without further trouble.

CHINA GETS WORSE.

Civil Foreigners in Peking Are Under Arms to Fight.

Tien Tsin, June 12.—The special train that went to examine the line and reconnoiter returned last night. The railway was found clear two miles beyond Yang Tsin. The engineers, with the guards, walked a mile and a half further. They found the ties and two bridges burned, and the railway torn up.

The first repair train, with Admiral Seymour and his staff, 650 British, Captain McCalla's 100 Americans, 40 Italians and 25 Austrians, left this morning at 9:30. A Hotchkiss and other guns were mounted in the center of the train. A second train left at 11 o'clock, with 600 British, Japanese, Russian and French troops. Repairing matter and new rails were taken along.

There are 31 foreign war vessels at Tien Tsin. A message from Peking to the admirals asserts that the situation is hourly growing more dangerous for foreigners. All those at Peking have taken refuge in Legation street. The civil males are under arms to fight with the regulars, if necessary. The approaches to Legation street are surrounded by howling mobs of undisciplined soldiery, with cannon and bayonets. The international guard were holding off the mob, which screamed insults and threats.

Moosomin, Assiniboia, June 12.—A sheriff's posse which returned here tonight from Winifred, a village 12 miles north, brings details of the slaughtering of Postmaster Alex. McArthur and four other members of his family, the fatal wounding of another; also the serious wounding of two others, by John Morrison, McArthur's hired man, yesterday. There appears to be an utter absence of motives for the act of Morrison, who was considered a quiet, well-behaved fellow. He is 27 years old. The only logical theory is temporary insanity.

PLANS FOR CARNAGE.

Disclosed by Sanitary Filipino Documents Captured.

Manila, June 12.—The great store of insurgent documents discovered by General Funston, together with the interesting papers which Captain Smith found in the possession of General Penealosa Garcia, throw interesting side lights upon the Filipino government. Most important of the lot is Aguinaldo's plan for the uprising of Manila, which was drawn by him at Malolos, in his own handwriting in Tagalog language, and bears the date January 9, 1899.

Pinned to the document was a translation into Spanish done in the hand of Buenavista. Aguinaldo's order was addressed to his "valiant and faithful" or bolo men. When the word for the uprising was given they were to slay all American soldiers in Manila. The inhabitants were to repair to the houses, whence they were to hurl down upon the insurgents heavy furniture and any iron implements they might have, heated red hot. They were also to have ready in their houses hot water, which was to be thrown upon passing soldiers, or squirted at them from bamboo syringes. The women and children were exhorted to help in preparing the water and boiling oil, which they were to pass out to the men for use. Afterward the bolo men were to run through the streets slaying Americans wherever they met them. They were instructed not to stop to pick up the guns of the soldiers they killed, these could be collected afterward. The bolo men were warned to restrain themselves from the temptation to looting, because, as Aguinaldo explained, he was particular desirous to make good in the eyes of foreign nations his assertions that the Filipinos were disciplined and civilized people. Particular injunctions were given for protecting the banks, even the Spanish bank.

MAY GET A NEW TRIAL.

Man and Woman Now Serving Life Sentences for Murder.

"Topoka, Kan., June 12.—The supreme court has reopened the celebrated murder cases of George Dobbs and Mrs. Amelia New, now serving life sentence in the Lansing penitentiary for the murder, near Eureka, in 1897, of Joseph New, the woman's husband. The court has granted a writ of coram vobis, which is, in effect, an order to the district court, to hear the application for a new trial, which the lower court had refused.

Dobbs and Mrs. New were convicted two years ago. The theory was that they were in love, and conspired to get rid of New, so they might marry. After they had been in the penitentiary for some time, Alvin Ballard, sent up for horse stealing, asserted that he could prove that Dobbs and Mrs. New were innocent. Ballard said Frank Allgood, now in the penitentiary for forgery, William Turner and he were the real murderers. Ballard told the story in detail, saying he belonged to a robber band organized by Allgood, and told the officers where they could find many stolen horses and vehicles. Ballard was taken from the penitentiary to verify his assertions, and aided the officers in recovering much stolen property. On the strength of this evidence, application for a hearing in the cases of Dobbs and Mrs. New was made before the district court of Greenwood county, where they were convicted, but the motion was refused. Now that the supreme court has overruled the lower courts' decision, the motion for a new trial will be heard at once.

STRIKERS' PLANS.

St. Louis Car Men Will Spend $100,000 to Equip an Elaborate "Bus System."

St. Louis, June 12.—The Central Trades and Labor Union proposes to establish a bus line in St. Louis, to compete with and run parallel to the lines of the St. Louis Transit Company, on which there is a strike, to be operated by union men. At a meeting at Walhalla hall last night, the first step was taken toward this end by the adoption of a resolution to raise at least $100,000 to purchase and equip the necessary bus system.

From the resolution adopted and the declarations of the speakers, henceforth the policy will be to win the strike, if possible, on the basis of a general boycott, which in all of its ramifications is to reach to almost every industry in the city. The fare on a bus for a distance equal to that traversed by the street-car line will be five cents.

Monday opened quiet, after a reign of terror. With one exception, all the street-car lines are in operation.

A revise list of casualties makes the list of dead three, fatally wounded one, and 10 wounded.
