

Portland is now assured of having a grand Fourth of July celebration. Beginning the 3d it will continue over the 5th.

It is now McKinley and Roosevelt—that is the republican ticket for president and vice-president. It is a strong ticket.

"Taddy" Roosevelt, the "Rough Rider" in the Spanish-American war in Cuba, in company with Wm. McKinley, president, will take a ride to the "White House," Washington city next fall, which they will occupy jointly for four years after March 1st, 1901.

A graduate of Cornell University will tell in a carefully detailed article in the August Ladies' Home Journal, "How a Girl Can Work Her Way Through College." There are almost innumerable methods by which a girl can pay for her education while she is studying. Colleges and universities make generous provision for young women and young men who are without money, but who have brains and energy. So no apt, worthy girl need be without a college education if she wants one and is determined to have it. This article will tell how it is to be obtained.

Mr. Hurlburt, foreman of the Denny farm, was arrested the latter part of last week, on information of his having killed a Chinese pheasant out of season. It is required by the law that information of such acts must be given by the game warden, or a legally authorized deputy. The informant in this case not being a deputy, and the evidence not sufficient to convict, Mr. Hurlburt was discharged. It appears that he had not shot the bird, but while plowing picked up a clod and threw at the bird, accidentally killing it.

Among the strong points of the July Woman's Home Companion is its very timeliness to the season and the passing of events, in the various departments bristling with information to the housewife during the hot days, and longer articles dealing with "Paris Memories of Franklin and Lafayette," "The House of Washington's Mother," "Among the Wild Birds," and "Country Homes for City People." Good stories abound, and there is something to interest every one in the family. Published by The Grosvenor & Kirkpatrick Co., Springfield, Ohio; $1 a year; 10 cents a copy; sample copy free.

MISSED DINNER—BUT AUTOMOBILE KEPT GOING—Automobiles continue to be the popular diversion. I saw Senator Wolcott coming around the corner at the Arlington, with Senator Allison on the seat with him. They were moving along at a rapid rate. Meeting a lady acquaintance they lifted their hats, and Senator Allison's face was a study in expression. The half-smile, half-pleased "potpourri" of a smile was there, suggesting the puffed look of those riding on a roller coaster for the first time. The story is told of an automobile which started in the automobile to attend a dinner party. When he arrived near the house a break occurred, and all efforts to stop the machine were unavailing. The police were called, but he could do nothing, and to have attempted to dismount would have had a life and limb. There was only one way. The machine was allowed to run down, and "round and round the square the blasted guest whirled until the power gave out. Although late to dinner, there was an automobile story to relate over the coffee—Joe M. Chappel in The National Magazine for June.

The Epworth League of McCabe chapel sent $14 last week to aid the starving people of India. The juniors contributed $3 besides this. The people of this community are doing good work. Prof. W. C. Haggerty, late principal of the Carlton school, is to fill the position of deputy, under Sheriff Sisson. John Holland has rented Arch Perry's farm near Tillamook city for a period of five years, and will move over right after harvest. The bridge across the Yamhill at this place now has a substantial new cover. Mrs. Myrtle Barnhart has been installed at the head of the clothes ironing department of the estate asylum. Mrs. Lucy A. Wallace died at home in this city Monday morning, June 18, aged 72 years. Mrs. Wallace whose maiden name was Pierce, was born in New York state, and when 13 years of age removed to Indiana, where she resided until about nine years ago, when, with her sons she came to McMinnville. Three sons and one daughter of the family remain: Frank W., Cary A., Claude M. and Mrs. Ada W. Unruh, national organizer of the W. C. T. U. Marlene Camp Spanish American war veterans was organized in this city June 14, with about 25 members. Lieutenant J. A. Young was elected captain of camp; Corporal A. E. Lambert, 1st lieutenant; Paul B. Cooper, 2d lieutenant; Will Unger man, 3d lieutenant; Geo. Snyder, quartermaster; sergeant; Frank Hayes, sergeant of the guard; and W. P. Morris, sentry; Walter Melinger, C. D. V. Bookes and R. L. Kinney, trustees.

Geo. C. L. Snyder, who has been one of the publishers of Valley Transcript, has severed his connection with that paper. He announces that he will endeavor to improve the musical talent given him, elsewhere. His successor is Mr. Harbaugh, lately from the East.

The devil has certainly broke loose in Dayton. One night last week, some one crawled into the sleeping apartment of a married woman, whose husband is absent, and going to her bed caught hold of her. The woman calling to her little daughter to go to a neighbor for help, the individual became frightened and hastily departed. Other reports of evil doings are in circulation.

WOULD NOT SUFFER SO AGAIN FOR FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE—I

awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter. For I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Livertyman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by R. L. Harris.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT—Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, La., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R. L. Harris' Drug Store.
