Greatest Single Remedy. President Pillsbury, of Bethany college, Kansas, says, in the Sheldon edition of the Topeka Capital: "The American saloon, open by law and license, is our greatest single enemy of decency, morality and religion. Our prohibition laws close that saloon and kill that foe. What greater praise could we utter?"

Look Tired Today. Perhaps you can't sleep or uneasy slumber don't rest you. A Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the best.

A woman should remember that with the average man the quality of her voice counts more than what she says.—Chicago Democrat.

Beware of Quack Remedies for Catarrh That Contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering through the mucous membrane. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from a reliable physician. The good you can possibly derive from them is nullified by the damage done to the system. Buy Chamberlain's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Chamberlain & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Chamberlain's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is sold by all druggists and in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best. The season for mowing will cause farmers to buy and it seems that just as this work is to be hurried some accident occurs. This does not always happen, but many such drawbacks might be avoided if farmers will clean their fields of stones, sticks and other obstructions to the machines before the grass is too high to see them. An injury to a mower knife may cause costly delay.

Viennois Steak. This is very easily made by taking rump or fillet steak, free from skin, silver, etc., and minding it very finely. It is then dusted with flour, pepper and salt, with, if liked, a very little minced parsley or chives, shaped into flat ovals, and fried, or saute, in hot fat, carefully turned to brown it equally on both sides, and then served with clear gravy or demi-glace, or with sour cream.—Philadelphia Press.

WHAT THE MINES ARE DOING

THE LOWER YUKON NEWS THE JOHN DAY VALLEY

American Mining Camps in That Section Are Doing Well. Many Locations Reported on Dixie and Strawberry Spurs.

Seattle, July 4.—The Post-Intelligencer has the following special news from Skagway: The first news of the season from the remote American mining camps of the lower Yukon has just come out to Skagway.

Latest arrivals report a new strike 100 miles back of Circle City, on three creeks known as Faith, Hope and Charity, which empty into the Tanana. A new strike is also reported on Walker's fork of the Forty-Mile, which was once before staked. A stampede has resulted, and others have rushed in and re-staked the country.

Fine pay has been struck on a number of claims not heretofore considered payers. Eureka, struck last summer, has proved a wonder so far, and has a pay streak 80 feet wide and four feet deep. It is expected Eureka will this year yield $1,500,000.

Col. Wiggins believes the Rampart camp is as good as the creek camp of Nome, and thinks many of the overflow at Nome will push up the river to Rampart and help make it a big producer. He has the belief there is gold in Koyukuk, but feels that the developments are scarcely enough yet to warrant great faith in the camp.

How ever from all sources come the reports that many are pushing into Koyukuk. E. G. Lenont, who has just arrived from Forty-Mile and other promising American camps, reports the clean-up on Jack Wade this spring has been demonstrative of a good camp. The creek is scarcely prospected, yet No. 7 below upper discovery yielded $80,000 at this year's clean-up. Lenont estimates the output for next season at $2,000,000. He is going after thawing a mobshy for the creek. He has a nugget from the creek weighing six ounces and worth $116. Gold of Jack Wade, also of Rampart, is worth $19 an ounce. Jack Wade gold is mostly in nuggets.

Ex-Gov. McGraw's Rich Claim. Of those who have been among the most successful is the man who is working the claim of ex-governor John H. McGraw, of Washington, known as No. 8, on Little Manook. It yielded the last winter $80,000 of which $5,000 was paid by hand. Last year McGraw thought he had worked out the pay streak.

No. 6, on Little Manook, this winter yielded $60,000. No. 7, on the same creek, gave $40,000. No. 21, 22 and 23, Little Manook, Jr., produced $40,000. Hooser and Big Manook have also proved rich. Hillside property on Big Manook has yielded as high as $9 to the ton.

Idaho bar, on which a rich discovery was made in 1898, was all staked at that time, but not much was taken out and the dump was not washed because of scarcity of water, but has been re-staked.

RICH COPPER STRIKE. Good Values on Old Claim in a British Columbia Camp. Phoenix, B. C., July 9.—An important ore strike has been made on the War Eagle claim in this camp. The strike occurred in the west drift of the 100-foot level, about 175 feet from the shaft, where a raise was being driven.

The ore body dipped a little to the east and was followed 11 feet, when the workmen went back and continued work on the raise. Up to date the men have gone through 25 feet of clean chalcopryite ore and have not reached the further wall. The width of the ore body, therefore, has not been determined. Resident Manager Buck has had an average test made of the new strata, the ore running over $20 in copper and $1.80 gold.

COMING TO THE FRONT. Toronto Creek Mines Again Attracting Attention. Republic, Wash., July 9.—Toronto creek mines are again attracting attention. Seven companies are working and some of them expect to cut their ledges within a few days. Some of the ledges have shown large values on the surface, and it was this that turned the attention of mining men in that direction. Among the mines that had the surface showings and carried exceptionally high values was the Oxford. As high as 255 ounces of silver and $15 in gold per ton were obtained from the ore near the surface. The owners decided to run a tunnel and now have it in 85 feet. A few days since a stringer 15 inches in width was discovered in the tunnel, which is believed to be an off-shoot from the ledges. The ore carries about 200 ounces of silver per ton and from $10 to $12 in gold.

The tunnel will have to be extended about 40 feet to cut the ledge. There is also a parallel ledge that can be cut by the tunnel by extending it another 100 feet. The ledges vary from 7 to 9 feet in width.

Mining News and Gossip. Several large nuggets have been found on the Mary Ann placers in Chasawamp, Wash. A strike is reported on West Fisher creek, 80 miles from Libby, Mont., where $90 is reported in an old claim.

It is reported in Ferguson, B. C., that a rich strike has been made in the Nettie L. A vein three to four feet wide of solid galena, carrying more copper than usual, was exposed.

In the Melodon group, near Belcher, 13 miles east of Republic, Wash., a strike in copper is reported, made in a 240-foot tunnel.

A strike is reported on a claim between Delta and Carbon Center, Idaho. The ore is high grade milling, and was found near the surface. No assays have been made.

The extent of the Sloan, B. C., camp is remarkable. Every mountain side for a distance of 25 miles long and nearly as wide is dotted with mines and prospects producing in paying quantities gold, silver, lead and copper.

THE DULL SEASON.

Railway Earnings Are Good, However, Business Failures Few.

Broderick's says: Business is unusually dull at this season, and this year no exception to the general rule is remarked. A review of the past six months, however, gives little comfort to pessimists. Bank clearings, it is true, are smaller by about 11 per cent, but railway earnings are about 10 per cent larger, and business failures, as a result of Broderick's, are the fewest reported for 18 years back, with liabilities of falling trades the same, with one exception, and that last year, since 1892. Winter wheat has about all been harvested in the Southwest and the yield there has been very large.

Copious rains in the Northwest, too, have apparently worked some improvement, judging from the more cheerful tone of advice received from thence this week.

Wool is dull and manufacturers are supplying only actual wants. In manufacturing lines dullness and weakness are most marked in products of iron and steel.

The settlement of labor troubles is effected in the better demand for building materials at affected centers, while rains in the Northwest have allowed white pine manufacturers to open their works, and give employment to many thousands of men.

Sugar has been marked up again this week, coffee is higher, while tea holds the full advance scored on the outbreak of the Chinese troubles. Wheat, including flour, shipments for the aggregate 2,018,832 bushels, against 2,154,144 bushels last week.

Business failures in the United States for the week number 196, as compared with 185 last week. Business failures in Canada number 26 as compared with 18 last week.

FACTS FOR FARMERS

REMARKABLE WOOD PRESERVATIVE ABOUT WOOD PRESERVATIVE.

Some Feet Impregnated With Avenarius Carbolineum Endures Twenty Years and Still Sound.

In an age when wild, exaggerated statements of the efficiency of all kinds of articles, from patent medicines to patent advertising purposes only, it is pleasing to write about a household preservative whose usefulness has been proved beyond the power of detractors to injure or imitate to compete with.

Such is Avenarius Carbolineum, the celebrated German wood preservative of the 19th century, whose fame is destined to outlast the 20th. It is not only the greatest preservative known for arctic climates, but also for the ravages of climate, fungus or vermin, but it may be truthfully described as the only preservative whose utility has been practically tested and not found wanting. Since the discovery of Avenarius Carbolineum near thirty years ago, it has been constantly employed for the treatment of wood used in ships, bridges, pavements, telegraph poles, fence posts, house supports for the use of other constructions, and in not a single case out of thousands has it failed to render articles impregnated immune against rot and decay, whether the attacking agencies were climate, soil, fresh or salt water, termites, ants, boring worms or other hostilities, singly or in combination when properly applied before.

The value of such a preservative on a farm, where almost all the constructive work is done in wood, is entirely self-evident. The farmer who does not appreciate practical economy can afford to do without it. An additional incentive for the use of Avenarius Carbolineum may be stated that the preparation is inexpensive, and a few gallons go a long way, while application is as easy and simple as that of common house paint. A few strokes of the brush does the work, and the article treated is insured against decay and death.

An illustration of the efficiency of Avenarius Carbolineum we publish the following photographic reproduction of the two pieces of wood which stand side by side partly in and partly out of the ground, together with a sworn statement concerning the same attached, as seen in the picture.

Piece of board, perfectly sound, after twenty years exposure, on account of being impregnated with Carbolineum Avenarius.

Piece of board, completely decayed, after five years exposure, on account of not being treated with Carbolineum Avenarius.

Air in Chappell, January 12, 1898. We are in Chappell, a piece of wood is a part of a fence board, which has been exposed to the weather for about 15 years. This piece was impregnated with Carbolineum Avenarius, and has always stood in very good condition. Not a single piece of wood in this fence has decayed during the time. The fence is above ground, which stood partly in and partly out of the ground.

The piece of wood above was not impregnated with Carbolineum Avenarius. It is a piece of wood which stood along side of the board, and removed both together in their abode.

The above testimonial was signed before the Royal Witness in Aix la Chapelle, and signed by the witness, a notary public, and is as true and true as the sun shines in its regular course.

Japan English. Japan is alarmed over the emigration of many of her residents to this country who are lured here by misrepresentation. This is like the misrepresentation which delude people into believing that any other medicine is equal to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for stomach disorders. It will cure indigestion, constipation and dyspepsia.

Any article that is grown, whether of the best or not, costs something, and the grower must receive at least the cost or he will suffer a loss. The larger the difference between the cost and the price received the greater the profit. It should be the object, therefore, to grow the best, rather than the aim for large yields, as the market may be overstocked with inferior goods while a demand may exist for the best.

An attractive-looking, delicious and simple dessert is made by lining a mould with lady fingers, sticking each one to the side of the dish with a little melted gelatine. The center is then filled with boiled custard flavored with black coffee and stiffened with a little gelatine. A couple of whipped cream stirred in just as the custard is poured into the mould is an improvement.

An excellent plan to get two crops on the same land and at the same time, is to drop seeds of sweet corn in the same rows with the peas, placing the seeds of corn several inches apart, thinning to a foot apart after the plants are up. The corn will finish its main growth after the peas have ceased growing, though for taller kinds the corn serves as supports.

Some notion of the coming deluge of books on the South African war may be had from the fact that an American publisher now in London was within a week of his arrival offered the American rights in 25 war books.
