Do You Cough?

"I guess I used to be like everybody else. When I caught cold, I just let it alone, thinking it would cure itself in a few days; of course the coughing and spitting of mucus sometimes lasted several weeks, but after a while the trouble would subside, and I would be all right again. The last time I had a cold, however, that was worse than the one before. My throat seemed to get weaker, and the coughing and spitting of mucus was the most severe of all. I was really frightened. I consulted a doctor and he told me I had no more trouble. I think Acker's English Remedy so strengthens the delicate lining of the throat that it easily resists the changes in temperature, and builds up the constitution as well."

Bread, and cakes fresh from the oven at H. Oliver's, McMinnville.

In a late number of a school journal, in referring to the teaching of scientific temperance in schools, it says: "Not every child is saved by this instruction from the consequences of his heredity and environment, any more than by the church and Sunday school. The trend towards the cigarette of today, is the law of consequences following the cups and pipes of the fathers. We cannot undo this work of the grandfathers, but we may educate the grandfathers of the future. A majority of whom we may hope to save."

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by R. L. Harris.

The Delinquent of New York, offers to distribute $17,500 among 1901 women. The plan is so arranged that women living in small towns have just as good a chance to win one of the 1901 prizes as a woman living in the city—because the prizes are given for the number of subscriptions secured in a town in proportion to the population of that town, instead of being given simply to those who send the largest list subscribers—which, of course, are most easily obtained in large cities. Another feature of the plan is, that all the cities and towns of the United States and Canada have been arranged in seven classes. The cities of the greatest population are grouped in class 1, and as there are not many of these, prizes offered are 25; highest prize $500, lowest $5. Total amount of prizes given away in this class is $1,000. Remaining smaller towns fall into 6 classes, and as the number of towns in a class increases, because there are more small towns than large ones, the amount of prizes given away to a class increases, so that in class 7, there will be $4,000 distributed among 601 winners. To every one failing to win one of 1901 prizes will be paid an extra commission, provided they equal one out of every 200 inhabitants of the town. The Delinquent is a favorite with the women, and the above liberal offer should be the means of greatly increasing the already large list of subscribers to this popular magazine.

"PICTURESQUE GALVESTON."—At the time of the great storm in Galveston, Texas, which caused so much distress and suffering to residents of that city, the editor of the Galveston Tribune had in press a handsome publication entitled "Picturesque Galveston." It is a book of over 100 pages, printed on fine paper, and filled with views in Galveston, which, by some, is considered one of the finest cities in the world. It was to have been issued by the business men of that city as a souvenir. The profits of the publication have been tendered to the Galveston Relief Committee, and will be sold under their auspices at $2 a volume. The book is said to be a very handsome one. Purchasers will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are contributing to the relief of thousands who were left homeless and destitute by the hurricane. The publisher of the book, Any one wishing to assist the unfortunate people of the stricken city and secure a beautiful book for their home, can do so by calling at this office and purchasing a copy of "Picturesque Galveston."

I feel like sounding its praise throughout the universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the throat, chest or lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Harris' drug store.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Harris.
