FAIR ITEMS

There is no denying the fact that R. L. Harris has one of the finest and best arranged drug stores in Yamhill county. At this time he has a large stock of Christmas and holiday goods, and has the store room neatly decorated.....The large store room of Nichols & Gabriel the general merchandise firm of Dayton, is crammed with general merchandise. They have a fine display of useful Christmas and holiday goods Their goods they are disposing of at a small profit for cash.....The Dayton Cash Grocery, A B. McMillan, manager, is as neat and well arranged grocery store as the e is in this county. It contains a large and general stock of groceries. The display and variety of holiday goods for young and old is fine.....The Dayton Cash Store, J. G Lewis manager, contains a large and varied stock of holiday and other goods, which is being sold cheaper than the cheapest..... The postoffice store has a great variety of fine candies, nuts, tropical fruits, cigars and other goods suitable for the holidays. Also fine stationery..... Fine jewelry, watches and clocks, for the holidays and every other day at the Dayton Jewelry Store .....The Dayton Furniture Store is stocked with furniture that is suitable for holiday gifts and general use .... Holiday and other goods in the grocery and hardware line at Thos Hall's.

"A good share of the state papers, from top to bottom, have seemed to take delight in owlishly appealing from the decision of Attorney-General Blackburn, that teachers have the right to read the bible in the public schools if they so desire. His decision reads: 'If the Bible itself is not sectarian, and it certainly cannot be, the simple reading of a chapter therefrom each morning in school, without comment, or the repeating of the Lord's Prayer, cannot teach or inculcate any doctrine, which would be sectarian in its character' Overwise editors are claiming that as the source of so many beliefs, it is therefore sectarian and should be prohibited from the schools. Such ridiculous pedantry is unworthy of notice, and we wish to be counted every time on the side of our attorney general on a decision like above. Quibling newspapers make the most noise on the subject but we believe the best citizenship of the state upholds Mr. Blackburn in his decision.—Newberg Graphic

The majority of people in the civilized world recognize the bible as the greatest of all text books. It is used on all occasions in administering the oath of office, from president down to the lowest officer. The bible is to be found in use in almost all lodge rooms of secret societies, and its teachings, more or less taught and patterned after by all. What harm can the mere reading of such a useful, and generally acknowledged good book, do? Attorney General Blackburn's decision is undoubtedly correct Every loyal citizen, and those who have the welfare of this country at heart should honor him for it.

DAYTON ADVERTISERS.

The board of managers of the state fair, at their meeting in Salem last week made provision to award premiums for county exhibits Six premiums were arranged for, as follows: First prize, $250 cash, and silver cup valued at $100 Second prize, $200 cash Third prize, $150 cash Fourth prize, $100 cash. Fifth prize, $75 cash, Sixth prize, 350 cash. These prizes will be awarded for the best displays of the agricultural and horticultural products for any county in Oregon, variety and quality to be considered, and all must be the product of the year 1901. These exhibits will be one of the main features of the fair. Several counties in Southern and Eastern Oregon announced that they would compete for the prizes. The Salem Chamber of Commerce is making an effort to raise a good sum of money to help the board of managers make the 1901 fair a big success. The first day's work towards this, there was subscribed by the business men of that city, $531.

The managers of the state fairs of Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and other states of the Northwest Circuit held a joint meeting in Portland on Saturday. The object was to arrange dates for each state fair that would not conflict with that of other state fairs within the circuit.

The following were appointed officers by the Oregon state fair board: Chief Marshal—W. H. Downing, of Sublimity Superintendent of Pavilion—C. A. Murphy, of Salem. Superintendent of the Dairy Department—Geo L. Rees, of Albany. Superintendent Poultry Department—Geo. D. Goodhue, of Salem. Superintendent Live Stock—Dr. Jas Withycombe, of Corvallis As sistant Superintendent Live Stock—R. Scott, of Milwaukee.

The date at which the next state fair for Oregon will be held is in September; beginning Monday 23 and closing Saturday 28.

JUST SAVED HIS LIFE —It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis of Bowerston, O, lately had from a frightful death For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of consumption. Then he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and lately wrote: "It gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Such wonderful cures have for 25 years, proven its power to cure all throat, chest and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at R. L. Harris' drug store

HOW TO CURE CROUP.—R Gray, who lives near Amenia, Duchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used It is a fine children's remedy for croup, and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by R L. Harris.

M. W. Kreitz Veterinary Surgeon, will give strict and prompt attention to all diseases by which animals are afflicted. Satisfaction guaranteed. Charges reasonable.

Acker's Saved Her Life

"About two miles from Vassar, Mich., where I keep a drug store, lives Mrs. T. M. Bratt. She was very sick and hopeless with consumption. I watched her case with interest after she began taking Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, because I had heard so much about its wonderful cures. Well, sir, perhaps you will doubt it, but with my own eyes I saw this woman get well and strong on that remedy. In a very short time the cough stopped, her lungs were healed up, the soreness went away, and she began taking on flesh. She herself said: 'Mr. Bullard, I owe my life to Acker's English Remedy. It is a certain cure.' In Mrs. Bratt's neighborhood her recovery has occasioned much comment, as you can easily understand. Her case was one where everybody thought it was only a question of a little while until she would die. I feel it a duty as a druggist to write this letter, so that there need be no more deaths from consumption."
(Signed) E. A. BULLARD, Vassar, Mich.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

THE NW Y O R WORLD

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION,

As Good to You as a Daily and You get It at the Price of a Weekly.

It furnishes more at the price than any other newspaper published in Ameries Its news service covers all the globe and is equaled by that of few dailies Its reports from the Boer war have not been excelled in horoughness and promptness, and with the presidential campaign now in progress it will be invaluable. Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact makes it of especial value to you at this time.

If you want to watch every move of the great political campaign take the Thrice-a-Week World. If you want to keep your eye on the Trusts—and they need watching—take the Thrice-a-Week World. If you want to know all foreign developments, take Thrice-a-Week World.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1 per year. We offer this unequaled newspaper and the DAYTON HERALD together one year for $1 65. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.

SOMETHING NEW.—Just published by the Southern Pacific Company, is a pamphlet upon the resources of Western Oregon, which includes an excellent map of the state, and contains information on climate, lands, education, etc., existing industries and their capabilities Attention is also directed to such new fiields for energy or capital as promise fair return. This publication fills a need long experienced by Oregonians, in replying to inquiries of eastern friends. Copies may be had of local agent Southern Pacific Co, or from
C. H MARKHAM,
G. P. A, Portland, Or.

A Portland paper in making a fight against Senator McBride, fails to see why a senator who has served one term is any more likely to get good committee positions than a newly elected member. The argument put up by this same metropolitan paper was just the reverse when Senator Dolph was candidate for re election. But the editor has often been known to wear leather spectacles.—Newberg Graphic.

We presume that the Graphic refers to the Oregonian. It may be granted that the editor of the metropolitan paper is a man of intellect and far seeing, but at times he sees through a glass darkly. What has Senator McBride done so far amiss that he should not be re-elected? It is probable that his record in congress will compare favorably with that of other congressmen.

Something of the cheery air of anticipation that goes with "the first days of school" prevails at Washington this month. There is a freshness and heartiness in the greetings that contrasts markedly with the farewells spoken when senators, congressmen and political cavaliers left to participate in the political joust As in all matters political, eyes are kept close on the weather vane at the White House, which seems to be "focusal" point of observation. Nor is it only those who were victors who participate in the after election functions. The President is tendered congratulations from representatives of every political creed represented in the national balloting, which included not less than a half score distinct and separate presidential candidates. What a significant story of the variance of political belief is told by such a plethora of presidential aspirants! There is no air of renewed leasehold at the White House, and little evidence that a momentous election has just occurred.—Joe Mitchell Chapple in The National Magazine for December.

BRAVE MEN FALL—Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles, as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there no need to feel like that. J. W Gardner, of Idaville, Ind, says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and good appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Harris' drug store. Every bottle guaranteed

PAID DEAR FOR HIS LEG.—B. D. Blanton, of Thackerville, Tex., in two years, paid over $300 to doctors to cure a running sore on his leg. Then they wanted to cut it off but he cured it with one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Guaranteed cure for piles. 25 cts. a box. Sold by R L Harris.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added sources of enjoyment, under its sunny skies in the variety of its industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, vallley and plain. The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application to
