You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price, 35 cents. Samples free at Harris' drug store.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIMENT—Of a gasoline stove burned a lady here frightfully," writes N. Palmer, of Kirksville, Mo. L. Harris'.

DIDN'T MARRY FOR MONEY—The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. Infalible for jaundice, biliousness, malaria, fever and ague and all liver and stomach troubles. Gentle but effective. Only 25c at Harris' drug.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE—It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past 5 years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Dr. J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following influenza, and find it very efficacious." For sale by R. L. Harris.

Gravel hauling is now the order of the day. So far it has been so that teams could not get to the gravel bar, the water in the river being too high. Where roadbeds have been properly graded and gravelled—sufficient gravel being placed on the road to keep it from cutting through to the earth, it has proved to be best material for road making that there is in this part of the world—better than crushed rock—making a more solid and smoother road. The road between Dayton and McMinnville should be all gravelled before another winter, and the work could easily be accomplished should every one who is interested in the matter, unite and do volunteer work, which they would not regret in after years, as they would then be able to travel over the road, summer or winter with pleasure. In summer it would not be so dusty, and in winter not so muddy. In all seasons being able to draw full loads of grain, wood, or any farm products to market. Make one good road to the county seat to begin with—also a good bicycle path.

There has been a practice with the boys and young men in Dayton of tossing balls back and forth on the street, and it has been remarked at times, that some one was liable to be hurt in this way. This has been verified lately, when Douglas Hadley, while standing on the sidewalk talking to another party, was struck in the face by a ball and severely injured. The city authorities should see to it that people's lives are not endangered in this way. Another thing, the speed of bicycles should be regulated in the corporate limits—no "scorching" should be permitted.

Rev. C. O. Poling of Dallas, came down to Dayton on Saturday morning's train. He preached in Evangelical church that evening and Sunday at 11 a. m.; Wheatland at 3 p. m. and Pleasantdale at 8. We were informed by Mr. Poling that the Dallas college had a very prosperous school year, and that the closing exercises were very interesting and well attended. The citizens of that town are much pleased with the school.

On Monday morning about 9 o'clock fire was discovered in the roof of John Maule's blacksmith shop. An alarm was given and soon the various Babcock extinguishers were headed for the fire, but before they arrived at the scene Mr. Maule and B. A. Harris, with assistance of several others had the fire put out. The fire was started by a spark from the chimney to the shop. A large hole was burnt in the roof.

Sunday two young men and women of Monmouth, while on the way to Newberg, while coming down hill near C. Litscher's, on south side of Palmer creek, one of the young lady's wheels gave way and the lady falling bruised her lower limb severely. But her wheel being repaired by Stonebrink, the party proceeded on their way. The young men were on their way to see their father whom they had not seen for 14 years.

On Friday morning last G. B. Abdill came near losing his tin and repair shop by fire. He had employed K. Becker to weld some iron pieces which he wished to make use of, and while Becker was doing the work in the blacksmith shop back of the tin shop, a spark from the iron flew into a pan of lacquer that stood in the tin shop, which is used for varnishing tin cans in which evaporated vegetables and fruits are put up for shipment. In an instant the fluid had ignited and burned furiously. Mr. Abdill who was busily employed did not notice the fire until his attention was called to it by a gentleman who was in the shop. He quickly picked up the pan of blazing lacquer and ran to the door and pitched it into the street, and by so doing saved the building and contents from being consumed by fire. Mr. Abdill's hands and face were badly burned by the burning fluid in the pan, a part of which spilled from the pan to the floor while he was carrying it to the door. The alarm of fire was given, and several business men who have Babcock fire extinguishers hastened to Mr. Abdill's shop with them. J. C. Nichols was the first to arrive, there with an extinguisher and he soon had all the fire extinguished. To those not aware of the condition of things in the shop, would appear that Mr. Abdill acted foolishly in carrying the blazing pan of fluid to the door and allowing himself to be so badly burned—having been unable to use his hands since—but when it is known that a can of benzine and a can of lacquer were standing within a few inches of the blast, his presence of mind and prompt action will appear commendable.
