The roads are becoming quite bad, owing to the great amount of rain.

John Campbell has moved into his new house. Mr. Campbell's health is not improving; he is quite ill and weak yet.

Tom Cooper, the obliging merchant is ever ready to attend to the wants of customers.

Miss Ina Stillwell is the same successful and pleasant school marm of Hopewell.

A gloom was cast over this community on hearing of the death of Henry Cooper. He was a general favorite among his many friends.

Mrs. R. B. Webber went to Portland the first of the week, by invitation, to illustrate her work of new phenology.

Dr. Courtney made a visit to Sherwood the first of this week, having had a professional call to that place.

The social at the Evangelical church last Friday evening was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those in attendance.
