

DAYTON HERALD.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1902

True it is, and always has been, that cheerfulness is riches that cannot be taxed.—January Ladies' Home Journal.

The February number of the Woman's Home Companion will contain a picturesque article on the great New Orleans Carnival of Mardi Gras. It will be superbly illustrated.

The Oregon Farmers' Congress will be held at Salem Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 6th to 9th, 1902. It will be assisted by Oregon Dairy-men's Association, Oregon Live Stock Association, Oregon Hop Growers' Association, State Board of Agriculture, State Board of Horticulture, State Grange, State Agricultural College, State Poultry Association. All who are interested in any branch of agriculture, and wish to see it made a success, are invited to attend. A very interesting program has been prepared for each day's session. The Southern Pacific Company has made a round-trip rate for this meeting of one and one-third fare; tickets to be sold on the certificate plan.

WEBFOOT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoffman have returned from Eastern Oregon. William Hoffman, Verne and Winnie Lauer of Dallas, were visiting in this vicinity Christmas. Miss Amy Martin and Miss Margaret Fisher, who attend the University at Salem, spent Christmas and the holidays at their homes. They return to Salem on Saturday. Mr. Deach and family spent Christmas in Salem. Harry Coulter of Portland is up visiting with old acquaintances. Miss Mattie Cahow is visiting. Miss Ethel Van Dorn. Samuel Hoffman is down from Pendleton on business. He brought the sad news of Grandma Hoffman's death. Revival meetings are now in progress at Webfoot church. Rev. Snyder, the evangelist, is helping. Rev. T. L. Jones, the pastor.

Much of what we call pleasure in life is really very hard physical labor—for instance, golf—and much that we call drudgery may be made as interesting as play if we but educate and train our minds as Ruskin would have us—find beauty and joy in the duties that lie nearest—and to inspire the brain with admiration for the best possible work the hand can find to do. I can hear a coming ripple of disapproval of this doctrine from the old housekeepers who read this story, which resembles the grunts of disgust I heard so often. We will hope they will not stumble upon it, for while I am an old housekeeper, I am not a disgruntled one, however, and I do see and believe that the natural and normal and even happy condition for women is the state of housewifery, that is, if she accepts and wields her scepter gracefully and intelligently.—Linda Hull Larrard in January Woman's Home Companion.

The portals of another New Year has been entered. The year 1901 has passed away, but the recorder who keeps a correct record of each human life, has closed the record for that year, of every individual's transaction during the year and as they are recorded, will stand against the individual as recorded, as the record is correct and unalterable. If for good happy is the individual. If otherwise, unhappy is he. Now, with the beginning of the new year—1902—let the omissions and shortcomings of the past, which cannot be recalled, pass, and make new resolves, and endeavor to keep them, to live more useful lives, by aiding our fellowmen to cheerfully bear the burdens of life, and by being more forbearing with each other. Be true, honest men and women, who are endeavoring to accomplish some good in the world. Be honest and faithful in the work you have to do. For instance, when employed to do work, perform it faithfully to the interest of your employer. Be earnest in doing the work given you to do by God.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

HIS LIFE AND WORK, BY THE MEMORIAL PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION.

We have made clubbing arrangements with the Chicago Inter Ocean for the sale with that paper and ours of one of the best memorial volumes issued, containing the life of our lamented President, William McKinley.

The writer of the same was a life-long friend of his, comrade in arms, his associate in Congress, was by his side before he closed his eyes in death, and attended the funeral obsequies at Buffalo, Washington and Canton, Ohio.

The Inter Ocean has secured this work, which makes a good sized octavo volume, 6 1/2 x 10 1/2 inches, containing nearly 600 pages of matter, and finely illustrated with nearly 200 copper plate pictures, all printed on the best book paper and bound in a most substantial manner in a finely illustrated embossed cover of cloth.

As stated above we had several memorial volumes presented to us, and made the selection of this one. It is the determination of this paper to give its readers the best market affords. We have made arrangements with The Inter Ocean to club the same with our paper, and the volume can be secured by our readers, in addition to the clubbing rate, at the nominal price of 75 cents, and 22 cents additional for postage. The volume will sell in any book store readily for $1.50 a copy. Send us your order at once, before the edition is exhausted.

Distinguished Travelers

And Globe Trotters invariably remark the excellence of the Rio Grande Dining Car service. For the magnificent scenic attractions, fast and comfortable train service (three trains to the East Daily) and interest along the line the route through Salt Lake City and Denver via the Rio Grande Western and Denver & Rio Grande is unsurpassed. Daily through Sleeping and Dining Cars to Denver, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis or Chicago without change. Personally conducted excursions every week. For rates, folders or information apply to J. D. Mansfield, General Agent, 124 Third St., Portland; Geo. W. Heints, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

A winter trip to Southern California and Arizona via the famous Shasta-Route is one never to be forgotten. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest and added sources of enjoyment under its sunny sky, in the variety of its vegetation, and among its lumbering resorts of mountain, shore valley and plains. Two trains leave Portland daily, morning and evening for California. These trains are equipped with the most improved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, and the low rates place the trip in reach of all. For illustrated guides of California and Arizona winter resorts, address R. B. MILLER, Gen. Pass Agent, Portland, Or.

A DEEP MYSTERY.—It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and altho' 73 years old, I am now able to do all my household work." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at R. L. Harris' drug store.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO WOMAN SPEAKS.—Prof. Roxa Tyler of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by R. L. Harris.

If troubled with a weak digestion, belching, sour stomach, or if you feel dull after eating, try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Harris' drug store.

Be ashamed of nothing on earth except poor work, which is a thing to be ashamed of. Select whatever you are best fitted for and train yourself to thoroughness in that line.—January Ladies' Home Journal.

Bro. Holder of the Shaniko Leader, in outlining the work to be covered by his Annual Edition, says, concerning our camp: "The Ashwood mining district will have particular attention paid to it, as there is no question but what this is the richest mining region that is on the Pacific coast, and in time will rival the famous Cripple Creek mines in Colorado or the Comstock lodes of Nevada in their palmy days." Ashwood Prospector.

This is the camp in which the rich Oregon King mine is located, and the Red Jacket adjoining, from which are taken and lately assayed, has proved very rich. A number of Dayton and other Yamhill people have interests in the latter property.

Although Nicholas & Gabriel do not advertise that they are carrying a mammoth stock of merchandise, they have a large stock of general merchandise, and of varied character, such as is used daily in the household, and elsewhere. Call on them when making purchases. Prices reasonable. Bargains for cash.

WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: "Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, with out any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that my case, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and my hearing in the deafened ear has been entirely restored. I thank you very truly yours. F. A. WERMAN, 738 S.
