A PRINTER GREATLY SURPRISED—"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, printer of the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. While looking over the Gazette, I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle of it, and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." Sold by R. L. Harris.

RATES AGAIN REDUCED FROM ALL POINTS EAST.

Before you make definite arrangements for that trip East let us quote rates via the Illinois Central Railroad. Our rates are the lowest to be had, and it will pay you to write us. If you haven't time to communicate with us tell the agent from whom you purchase your ticket that you want to travel by way of the Illinois Central, and you will never regret the trip.

If any of your relatives or friends in the East are coming west while the low rates are in effect write us about them, and we will see that they get the lowest rates with the best service. Through tourist cars, personally conducted excursion cars, free reclining chair cars, in fact all the latest conveniences known to modern railroading.

For particulars regarding rates, time, services, stop-overs, different connections and routes, etc., call on or address, B. H. TRUMBULL, Com'l. Agt., 142 Third Street, Portland, Or.

STRIKES A RICH FIND.—"I was troubled several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all medicine I ever used. They have also kept me in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. L. Harris.

An Author Speaks.

The late Charles Dudley Warner—author, editor and traveler—while bathing in Great Salt Lake remarked to a friend that in all his travels he never before saw such a glorious combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and happy children. The only continental line passing directly through Salt Lake City is the Rio Grande System. It is also the "Scenic Line of the World." No European trip of equal length can compare with it in grandeur of scenery or wealth of novel interest. All agents sell through tickets to the East by way of the Rio Grande Lines. Send for pamphlets to J. D. Mansfield, General Agent, 124 Third St., Portland; or Geo. W. Heintz, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

Remember the dairy meeting Saturday and attend.

By authority of the county Mr. Earhart has authorized the sub-supervisors to use the rock in making roads. Starr Bros. arranging to make it convenient for teams to get to the quarry, by making a macadamized road from the quarry to the county road, which is but a short distance, and otherwise making it convenient to get out the rock. It is possible that we may now have good roads.

Rev. J. Waggoner of Independence, will begin a series of lectures "On the Book of Revelations," Monday evening, March 24, at the Christian church, Dayton. The lectures will be continued for some time.

Rev. Waggoner is spoken of very highly as a lecturer and speaker, by California papers, of which state he was formerly a resident, having resided in Los Angeles many years, and also at Palo Alto, where he was employed in the Stanford University and for which university he traveled and lectured throughout Oregon. His lectures here no doubt, will be of an interesting character. Why not attend.

Arthur E. Lambert of McMinnville, is out as a candidate for county clerk on the republican ticket, and we are informed, stands a fair chance to be nominated. Mr. Lambert is a native Yamhiller, and has resided in Yamhill county during his whole life, excepting two years, during that time he was in Uncle Sam's service in the Philippine Islands. He is well known in the county, and especially in the southern and western portions, and bears a good reputation as a moral and upright young man. He is well qualified to fill the office of clerk. He has many friends in all parties, and if nominated will no doubt make a strong fight, and if elected will fill the office of clerk satisfactory to the people of the county.

There has been some complaint that many of the birds are being killed, and by request we print the following abstract of the state laws of Oregon:

There is a statute for the protection of sea gulls, making it a misdemeanor "to willfully injure, take, kill or destroy any sea gull," the penalty being, a fine, $5 to $25 and costs and imprisonment in default. Any justice of the peace has jurisdiction.

OUR NATIVE AND IMPORTED SONG BIRDS.—The Legislature of Oregon has also enacted two statutes for the protection of song birds: the first approved February 20, 1891, protects useful singing birds imported from Germany and elsewhere, naming the nightingale, skylark, starling, redbreast, mocking bird, and others, and making it a misdemeanor to injure or kill them. The statute, approved in February, 1895, protects native song birds and others naming the yellow-breasted chat, meadowlark, robin, song sparrow, lark finch, variegated thrush, wood thrush, hermit thrush, American goldfinch, bluebird, snow-birds oreole, lazule finch, house and winter wren, pine linnet, California linnet, warblers, vireo, swallow, tanager, grosbeak, kinglets or horned lark. Both these acts include interfering with their eggs. Penalty not less than $5, nor more than $100. This law was approved Feb. 23, 1895.
