

The Portland Journal mentions Hon. J. N. Williamson as a proper man to represent Oregon in Congress.

A saloon keeper in England advertised his beer as liquid bread. A member of the English Parliament bought a quart and paid a chemist $15 to examine it. Two per cent, about a third of a cent, was really food. Five per cent, was alcohol, and the remaining 93 per cent, water. The saloon keeper was arrested under the food act.—Journal of Iobriety.

NAMES FOR FARMS—We wish that every farm would be named. This is not a mere matter of sentiment but it is strictly business. The man whose farm is known by some name is certain to conduct all of his operations on a better plan. On every place there is certain to be some peculiarity that will suggest a name. How much more dignified it is to be spoken of as the proprietor of Oak Grove farm than be alluded to as Jim Jones. By all means name your farms, and it will make you all better farmers.—Lewiston Journal.

An exchange says: "That community which has good roads is a prosperous community, and that section in which knowledge is sought after is an intellectual section. Knowledge and prosperity go hand in hand, and that town which is situated in a country where good roads have been built, and where education is considered first above all else, is a prosperous town. The society of a town to attract investors must be good, and well regulated schools take high rank in any estimate of the social advantages of any community. No person cares to invest money in a community unless the people who live in the neighborhood show evidence of appreciating the blessings which industrial enterprise brings."

DECLARES IN FAVOR OF INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

The following letter from Senator Mitchell is self-explanatory.
"Washington, D. C., Feb. 26—Hon. W. S. U'Ren, Secretary Direct Legislation League, Oregon City, Or.—Dear Sir:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your copy of February 17, just received, in which you state that the Portland Board of Trade has referred to its committee on legislation a request from the Direct Legislation League for an indorsement and approval of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Oregon, providing for the initiative and referendum.

"I think you know without any expression from me that I not only am now but have been for years heartily in favor of this proposed amendment, and I have no hesitation in expressing myself at all proper times and in all proper ways in its favor. I believe a large proportion of the people of Oregon favor the amendment; so let us try it.

"I have not the time at present, nor do I think it necessary to go into the specific reasons why I favor this amendment. The reasons entertained by those who favor it are known generally to the people of Oregon.

JOHN H. MITCHELL.

Not one person in ten thousand of those who will read Helen Keller's own story of her life, when it begins in an early issue of The Ladies Home Journal, will have the least conception of the amount of hard work required to write the story. First of all Miss Keller puts down her ideas "in Braille," as the blind express it; that is to say, in the system of "points" raised on paper by means of stylus and slate devised to aid the blind; these "points" being read afterward by passing the sensitive fingers over them. When all of this Braille work has been completed Miss Keller goes to her type writer and uses these notes as a guide to the rewriting of the story. As soon as a page of matter is typewritten it is, so to speak, lost to Miss Keller, who has to depend upon her faithful teacher, Miss Sullivan, to repeat it to her by spelling out each sentence by means of the hands. It is a tedious task, especially as some of the pages have to be read again and again, with changes here and there, before Miss Keller is satisfied. Then, when the proofs are sent to her, all this slow process of spelling word after word has to be gone through once more, so that each word that Helen Keller writes goes through her fingers at least five times. It will be a satisfaction to everybody to know that the publishers of The Journal have recognized in a substantial manner the extraordinary ability and patience which Miss Keller has shown in her work.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An ingenious treatment by which drunkards are being cured daily in spite of themselves.

No Noxious Drugs. No Weakening of Nerves. A Pleasant and Safe Cure for the Liqueur Habit.

It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison and nerves shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands! Children cure your fathers! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "Cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee and tea, and believe to-day that they are drinking of their free will. Do not wait. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvements." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effective than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept H 302 EDWIN B. GILES & CO. 2332 Market St., Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland, one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The beautiful valleys of the Umpqua and Rogue rivers, with their orchards of peaches, prunes, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful turnings, twistings and doublings of the railroad bring into view a grand array of towering mountains and profound gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountains slope stretching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canyons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. After a day's enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the continent of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.

A Change in Business.

We desire to give McMinnville and vicinity a better service in the line of building materials. What we need is a mill nearer our city, and, better yet, a mill situated in our fair, growing city, where Lumber, etc., can be made the year round, giving employment to a larger number of men, supplying material during winter months, and, above all, keeping our money at home and distributing it among our business men and employes, instead of sending it away to build up other communities to our loss.

ALARGE BODY OF EXCELLENT TIMBER

consisting of White and Yellow Fir, Cedar and Hardwood. This body of Timber is available to our city, but will require a large amount of capital to handle the enterprise, and if we can reduce our stock sufficiently to get the required capital, we will be able to give our patrons the benefit of the saving in the long haul from our present mill, which means a saving of at least $2 a thousand on Lumber. To secure this capital, and to secure it quickly, we commenced

On January 10, 1902,

A Sale Strictly for Cash

of our Entire Stock of Goods, consisting of Lumber, Sash and Doors, Mouldings, Paints, Oils, Glass, etc., etc. We have a large stock of strictly first-class Finishing Lumber under our sheds, and it will pay those contemplating building during the coming season to take advantage of this sale and secure strictly first-class Dry Lumber at a price that will never be equaled again.

TO DEALERS who handle small stocks of Mouldings and Shop Work, etc., here is a chance to secure your Spring Stock at a money-making price. Send in your list of goods wanted in this line, and let us quote you prices.

We have one of the largest stocks of Paint Brushes in the valley, and to Painters or Dealers this will afford an opportunity to lay in your season's stock of high-grade brushes at little money. In fact, everything that we carry in stock will go at some figure. In addition to our stock of goods we will offer our located in McMinnville. Also Four Head of Work Horses, Five Work Cattle, several Wagons, Harness, etc., etc. Come and make us an offer on same. No discount on any line of goods except for Spot Cash. All goods sold and entered on book, even for one day, will be entered at regular prices.

We have just added a Shingle Mill to our sawmill in the mountains, and Shingles will not be sold at a discount. All amounts due must be settled at once. If not paid by February 1st, will be handed to an attorney for collection. If you desire to help us in this enterprise, come in and pay up and buy something for your spring repairs.

THE EDITOR'S SON.
How dear to my heart is the steady subscriber.
Who pays in advance at the birth of each year—
Who buys down the dollar and offers it gladly,
And casts 'round the office a halo of cheer;
Who says "Stop it, I cannot afford it."
Or, "I'm getting more papers than I can read."
But always says, "Send it; the family like it."
In fact we think it a household need.
How welcome he is when he steps in the sanctum—
How he makes our heart throb,
How he makes our eyes dance!
We outwardly thank him, we inwardly bless him—
The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

Ed. HERALD:—Now comes the mail from a woman that her husband, (good man) only 45 years of age, has been overcome by the influence of a young woman 21 years of age. He having deserted his wife and gone with the young woman. How he must suffer to do a thing so revolting to his manly nature. (?) Which of the three is afflicted with the disease called meanness? We sometimes prescribe hazel oil for children. How would club oil answer for older people who are afflicted with the same disease, and why could not the parents of the young woman; or those of some other, under similar circumstances test its merits? Why talk about woman's rights; instead of making use of what we have.

All doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membrane, causing it to crack and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and expert practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of Catarrh, has at last perfected a Treatment when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures Catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation.
